Buby Brothers

Pop/Rock

Outdoor concert
indoor if rain

Born and raised in Brazil, Marcelo Buby began his musical journey in 1986 at the tender age of ten. As a professional guitarist throughout more than 2 decades, he had the opportunity to record and perform alongside numerous national and international artists with cover and original materials, engaging in a vast range of musical genres and participating in several multi-cultural projects. As an ever-evolving musician, in recent years he also found the love for singing. Shortly thereafter, his solo project expanded into a band format while collaborating with other talented local artists, where BubyBros came to life. BubyBros highlights the top classics of pop-rock and reggae, and has been captivating audiences throughout venues and private events in the Tri-State area ever since.

Sunday, September 10, 3:00p.m.

Indoor concert

Eric Clark

Once again, internationally renowned pianist Eric Clark will delight us with a recital.

Eric has performed to great acclaim throughout much of the United States as well as in Europe and Asia, and has received numerous, prestigious awards. Eric's solo engagements include Tchaikovsky Piano Concerto, Grieg Piano Concerto, and Chopin Piano Concerto.

Sunday, September 17, 3:00p.m.
Berkshire Jazz Orchestra

Outdoor concert
Canceled if rain

The Berkshire Jazz Orchestra is a 17-piece ensemble based in Fairfield County, CT, whose history dates from 1987. The band includes many professional musicians and music educators with great skill and amazing creative solo abilities, who believe in keeping the big band genre fresh and alive.

The orchestra presents big band repertoire from classic swing bands such as Glenn Miller, Duke Ellington, and Count Basie, as well as music from more contemporary groups. Their vocalist, Jan Maki, performs classic songs from the American Song Book made popular by Tony Bennett, Frank Sinatra, Bette Midler, Natalie Cole, and other artists.

The Berkshire Jazz Orchestra will bring a smile to your face and get your feet tapping with music to "knock your socks off!"

Call for Volunteers

Richter Arts is a non-profit, all-volunteer organization. We depend on the time and energy of volunteers to keep our activities running. If you would like to help us promote the arts in the greater Danbury area, we invite you to get in touch. We can always use help to run Sunday afternoon events during Spring and Fall, and there is much else to do behind the scenes.

Please send an e-mail to slrichterarts@gmail.com. Tell us how to contact you and we will get back to you promptly. Thank you!

Sunday, September 24, 3:00p.m.

Chris Monty

Indoor if rain

With over 20 years of stand-up comedy and television under his belt, Chris Monty continues to delight audiences worldwide. His latest high profile projects include his stand-up comedy special titled "What's the Worst That Could Happen" (Amazon Prime), Vinyl (HBO), Red Oaks (Amazon Prime), Paul Bart: Mall Cop 2 (Sony Pictures), Kevin Can Wait (CBS), and Orange is the New Black (Netflix). In his stand-up, Chris Monty channels a refreshing and unique style of the 1960's cool funnyman mixed with a modern chic. His unique take on current topics and storytelling are reminiscent of the comics that would keep The Rat Pack in stitches for weeks. He spans generations in that older crowds love his his cool, retro style and younger crowds see a cadence that they haven't seen on stage. It is truly something unique to experience. Chris's experience as a stand-up lends itself to his wide ranging acting work also. He uses his quick improvisational skills and ability to use physical slapstick and timing to enhance his lead and supporting actor's roles. . Whether on screen or stage, Chris Monty has the chops to make your creative endeavor something to be remembered for months and years to come.

Sunday, October 1
3:00p.m.

Callie Sorrento, Sergio Mandujano, and Andrew Gordon

Opera and Musical Theater
Indoor Performance

Trio Callie Sorrento, Sergio Mandujano, and Andrew Gordon are thrilled to be returning to the Richter House this October! Mark your calendars for October 1st at 3 PM. Together, Callie, Sergio, and Andrew will present diverse repertoire, including music from well-known operas and beloved musical theater by Puccini, Verdi, Bizet, Stephen Sondheim, and more.

Sunday, October 8, 3:00p.m.
The Roarin' Ramblers

Dixieland Jazz

Outdoor Performance
Indoor if rain

The Ramblers is a group of seasoned musicians who love to play Dixieland Jazz. The band was born out of an idea to open the 2020 Richter Arts season with a Roarin' '20s theme, but we all know what happened there.

Subsequently, the band has had a chance to get some gigs under its belt, including a very lively one at Richter Arts, last year, and it is looking forward to the upcoming Oct. 8 gig.

Sunday, October 15, 3:00p.m.
Victoria Schwartzman

Piano Recital

Indoor
Performance

Born in St. Petersburg, Russia, Victoria Schwartzman (formerly Mazin) performs regularly as a soloist and chamber musician. Victoria has appeared with the Bavarian Radio Orchestra chamber players, at Bard Music Festival, at the Music Mountain Festival, in the New York Philharmonic Ensembles series at Merkin Hall, at Summit Music Festival, at Bargemusic, in the Gessner- Schocken concert series in Cambridge, WMP Concert Hall, and the Nicolas Roerich Museum concert series in New York City. As a member of the Yanvar Trio, she was a prizewinner in the Val-Tidone Chamber Music Competition and a finalist in the Zinotti International Chamber Music Competition, both in Italy.

Adam Grabois & Margarita
Nuller

Classical Music Concert

Indoor
Performance

Adam Grabois has a varied career as chamber musician, soloist, teacher and recording artist and is the founder of the record label, Reflex Editions, about whose first recording the Philadelphia Inquirer wrote, "Sometimes, the way he plays with the sound of a single note has enough emotional sustenance in it to launch a half-dozen distinct feelings in quick succession."

Margarita Nuller graduated from the St. Petersburg Conservatory, Russia. Since her arrival in the United States in 1990, she has performed extensively as a soloist and chamber musician in the New York metropolitan area and in New England as well as in Brazil, Russia, Spain, and Portugal.
