Day 9 - Norway in a Nutshell: An Epic Journey from Oslo to Bergen - Bergen

Private Transfer From Oslo Hotel to Oslo Train Station

Norway in a Nutshell is the ultimate way to experience Norway's most stunning landscapes in a single, unforgettable trip. This unique route takes you from Oslo to Bergen, combining trains, buses, and a fjord cruise to explore the country's rich natural beauty — from towering mountains and serene valleys to majestic fjords.

The Journey: Step-by-Step Exploration

- Train from Oslo to Myrdal: Start with a scenic train ride on the Bergen Railway, passing through forests, lakes, and over the Hardangervidda plateau, offering breathtaking mountain views.
- Flåm Railway to Flåm: Take the steep Flåm Railway down to Flåm, descending through tunnels, ravines, and alongside waterfalls like the stunning Kjosfossen.
- Fjord Cruise from Flåm to Gudvangen: Cruise through the narrow Nærøyfjord and Aurlandsfjord, surrounded by towering cliffs, waterfalls, and peaceful fjord scenery.
- Bus from Gudvangen to Voss: Enjoy a bus ride along the dramatic Stalheimskleiva road (if open), with spectacular valley views and waterfalls.
- Train from Voss to Bergen: Conclude with a train ride to Bergen, a city of colorful wooden houses and rich maritime history, nestled between mountains and sea.

Day 10 - Discovering Bergen: A Walking Tour - Fløibanen Funicular Railway Round Trip Ticket - Bergen

Discover why Bergen is often called Norway's most beautiful city on a walking tour that unveils its rich 950-year history. Start in the city center and explore the charming harbor of Vågen, wander through narrow wooden lanes, and visit key sites like the fish market, theater, and Bryggen, a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Learn how Bryggen's colorful wooden houses once stored dried cod for export, making Bergen a vital trading hub. Hear stories of the Hanseatic League and the lives of the German merchants who shaped the city's past. Your local guide will offer a true insider's perspective on Bergen's culture and inhabitants, the "Bergenser."

The Fløibanen is a delightful funicular railway that transports visitors up to Fløyen, a scenic hilltop overlooking Bergen, Norway. Departing from its central station near the fish market, the funicular makes a quick 6-minute journey to Fløyen, which stands 320 meters above sea level. At the summit, you'll be treated to breathtaking panoramic views of Bergen, its fjords, and the surrounding islands. On clear days, the sight even extends to the Hardangervidda plateau. Fløyen offers various activities, including hiking trails, scenic viewpoints, and relaxing spots at a restaurant and café. Whether you're keen to explore the woodland paths or simply enjoy the stunning scenery, the Fløibanen ride is a memorable highlight of any trip to Bergen. The funicular will then return you to the base, completing a picturesque round trip.
