DAY 1 ARRIVE RIO DE JANEIRO

---

On arrival in Rio de Janeiro Airport, you will be met and transferred to your hotel. Rio de Janeiro is best known for its sparkling beaches, carnival with its effervescent samba dancers and it's well preserved tropical forests. The rest of the day is free at leisure. Overnight in Rio de Janeiro.

DAY 2 RIO DE JANEIRO

(B, L)

Today enjoy full day tour of Rio de Janeiro. Visit the most famous landmarks of the city and see the natural beauty of Rio de Janeiro from up above. After a scenic drive along Rodrigo de Freitas Lagoon, passengers arrive at the bottom of the Corcovado Hill. Embark on a comfortable train that ascends the mountain, where the statue of Christ the Redeemer is located 2,300 ft above sea level. The Christ statue, known as the "Wonder of Rio", was recently elected one of the 7 "New Wonders of the World". Upon arrival at the top, guests can use the panoramic elevators or escalators to arrive at the foot of the statue. There, passengers can enjoy a panoramic view of Rio de Janeiro and discover why it is called the "Marvelous City". Afterwards, descend the mountain and stop for a delicious Brazilian Barbecue lunch. Later visit the world famous 'Pão de Açúcar', (Sugar Loaf Mountain), which has become an iconic symbol of the city of Rio de Janeiro. Rising up from a small peninsula at the entrance of Guanabara Bay, its name is said to refer to its resemblance to the traditional shape of a concentrated, refined sugar loaf. The journey to the top is made in glass cable-cars. The first cable-car takes passengers to the top of Urca Hill, which rises 215 meters above sea level and offers spectacular views of the entire bay and its surrounding islands. From Urca Hill, passengers continue in a second cable-car to the top of Sugar Loaf which rises 395 meters above sea level and offers a 360 degree view of the entire city including Botafogo and Copacabana Beaches, Corcovado Mountain and downtown Rio de Janeiro. Overnight in Rio de Janeiro.

(B)

The day is free at leisure to enjoy this wonderful city and beaches. In the evening we recommend you to take and optional tour of Ginga Tropical Show. An experience of live music, brilliant costumes, rhythmic drumming and dancing! Overnight in Rio de Janeiro.

---

DAY 4 RIO DE JANEIRO - LIMA

(B)

Early this morning you will be transferred to Rio de Janeiro Airport for flight to Lima. (flight cost not included)

On arrival in Lima, you will be met and transferred to your hotel.

Today enjoy City tour of Lima. Lima is a modern city that has ten million inhabitants. It was built over the capital of the Spanish Viceroyalty and local pre-Inca vestiges. The tour starts at Larcomar, the city's most exclusive shopping centre located in front of the Pacific Ocean, and will continue to the Pucllana Temple, a pre-Inca pyramid found in the Miraflores district, to mark a contrast. Visit the El Olivar Park, an ancient olive plantation, which is now part of the city, located in the San Isidro district, and from there proceed to Lima's historical downtown, a World Heritage listed by UNESCO. Stop at the Main Square, located in front of the Presidential Palace, the Lima Municipality and the Archbishops Palace, beautiful colonial buildings that are an important part of its identity. A few blocks away, visit Santo Domingo Convent, one of the most impressive religious architectural complexes of the 17th century. It contains the relics of the three Peruvian saints, Santa Rosa de Lima, San Martín de Porres and San Juan Macías, and a library with a collection of 25 thousand old books. Overnight in Lima.

DAY 5 LIMA - CUSCO

(B)

Today, transfer to Lima Airport for flight to Cusco. (flight cost not included)

(Note: The flight from Lima to Cusco should be taken early in the morning in order to allow the passengers to take some rest and acclimatize themselves before starting the excursion during the afternoon)

Later in the afternoon, proceed on a City Tour & Archaeological Park.

Start the tour by visiting the Coricancha, also known as "The Temple of the Sun" (Quri Kancha 'Golden Temple'), which was built by the Inca Pachacutec and at the arrival of the Spaniards became the basis for the construction of the Santo Domingo Convent. Here, during the Inca Empire reverence was surrendered to the sun ("Inti"), and there was a time when it was covered with gold. Continue to visit the Cathedral, the most imposing monument in the Plaza de Armas. Its construction began in 1560 and ended only in 1654. For this purpose hundreds of stones were extracted and transported from Sacsayhuaman fortress under the command of the Ecclesiastical Council. Tour the fortress of Sacsayhuaman, one of the most emblematic buildings of the Incas (located just minutes from town center) built by the Inca Pachacutec in the fifteenth century. This is a huge fortress built with large stones whose transportation remains still a mystery. Each June 24th, during the winter solstice, the feast of Inti Raymi is recreated here, where the sun is worshipped. Later, continue to Quenqo, located 4 kilometers from the city of Cusco. Quenqo is an archaeological complex of mainly religious use where it is believed agricultural rituals were performed. Finally get to know Puka Pucara, located 7 kilometers from the city of Cusco. Puka Pucara, which means "Red Fortress", was an architectural complex of alleged military use with multiple spaces, plazas, baths, aqueducts, walls and towers, and it is believed the entourage of the Inca used it while he rested in Tambomachay. Overnight in Cusco.

(B)

---

DAY 6 CUSCO-SACRED VALLEY

---

This morning, visit the town of Chinchoero, a traditional Cusco urban centre located at an elevated point with a beautiful view of the valley. The inhabitants of this area preserve the artisan traditions and the inherited knowledge of the Incas and display them in their clothes and customs. In Chinchoero there are also archaeological remains and a beautiful seventeenth-century church, one of the first Catholic buildings in Peru.

Later proceed to the Living Museum of Yucay. The museum is a centre Andean traditions interpretations, where demonstrations of the elaboration of textile work, adobe, pottery and silverware are carried out in the same way in which they used to in antiquity; an original recreation of Inca traditions. Also, residents of the museum include llamas, sheep and alpacas, and they can be fed! Transfer to Ollantaytambo and some free time. Later, visit the town and local archaeological site, inhabited uninterruptedly since Inca times, and climb the iconic fortress, built next to a mountain. Overnight in Sacred Valley.

DAY 7 SACRED VALLEY - CUSCO

---

(B)

Transfer to the train station.

Departure on the Vistadome train to the town of Aguas Calientes. During the journey, we will appreciate the hanging bridge that signals the start of the Inca Trail. The railway follows the course of the Urubamba or Vilcanota River climbing down and entering a canyon until we reach Aguas Calientes, the town that is located at the foot of Machu Picchu Mountain. We will board our mini-buses to climb to the remnants of the Sacred Citadel of the Incas, "Machu Picchu". Visit to this incredible archeological site that keeps indescribable magic and energy for those who haven't lived this experience before. We will tour the terraces, corridors, temples, the solar clock or "Intihuatana", and other sacred places kept by this citadel. In the afternoon, ride back to the town of Machu Picchu (former - Aguas Calientes) to catch the return train. Arrival at the station and return to the hotel. Overnight in Cusco.

DAY 8 CUSCO - PUERTO IGUAZU

---

(B)

Today you will be transferred to Cusco Airport for flight to Foz do Iguazu, Brazil via Lima. (flight cost not included)

On arrival at Foz do Iguazu, you will be met and transferred to hotel.

The rest of the day is free at leisure. Overnight in Iguazu.

DAY 9 PUERTO IGUAZU

---

(B)

Today enjoy full day visit to the Falls, Argentine Side.

Depart from the hotel to visit the Argentine side of the Iguazu Falls, located within the National Park Iguazu. With an extension of 67.000 hectares the park has been declared a Natural Patrimony of Humanity by the UNESCO. The Falls are integrated by 275 waterfalls that fall from an average altitude of seventy meters. The starting point is the "Central Station", from which visitors can choose to take the train that goes to "Falls Station" or the one that goes to "Devil's Throat Station". Overnight in Iguazu.

DAY 10 PUERTO IGUAZU - BUENOS AIRES (B)

---

Today proceed in a half day Excursions to falls, Brazilian Side.

Depart from the hotel crossing the bridges Puente Tancredo Neves and Juan D. Perón that join the Argentinian city of Puerto Iguazu with the Brazilian city of Foz de Iguazu. The trip continues towards the National Park do Iguacu, one of the biggest vegetation reserves in Brazil, until arriving at the visitors' centre. Enjoy the panoramic view of the Isla San Martín and of the most majestic waterfalls: The Bossetti, The San Martín and the Three Musketeers. Towards the end of the walk is the view point, from which you can appreciate a unique view of the Devil's Throat, which, at this point, is only about 150 meters away. At the end of the walk there is a long stairway which leads to the place from which visitors get their transfer back to the hotel.

Later transfer to Iguazu International Airport for your flight to Buenos Aires.

On arrival at Buenos Aires Airport you will be met and transferred to the hotel. Overnight in Buenos Aires.

DAY 11 BUENOS AIRES (B, D)

---

DAY 1 ARRIVE MANAUS

---

On arrival in Manaus Airport, you will be met and transferred to your hotel. The rest of the day is free at leisure. Overnight in Manaus.

DAY 2 MANAUS - AMAZON

Today, you will be transferred to your selected lodge.

The program of the activities depends on the selected lodge: Amazon Ecopark Jungle Lodge.

OPTION 1 - MONKEY FOREST: The facilities for rehabilitation and re-introduction of wild animals in their habitat (known as the Monkey forest), was created in 1991 with the intention of receiving animals which have been confiscated from illegal commerce. This is a joint project with the Municipal Secretary of Environment and Sustainability. In this center, the animals are initially put into quarantine to be evaluated and taken care of by a team of veterinaries and biologists. The Monkey Forest is open to guests at feeding times, always accompanied by a credentialed professional, permitting guests to film and photograph these animals in a natural and safe environment.

Note: Twice a year the monkeys move away for 2-3 weeks to travel through the forest and demarcate their land. During this period will not be possible to see the monkeys, only the one in quarantine.

OPTION 2 - NIGHT TOUR IN CANOE: Depart lodge in paddle or motorized canoes, to appreciate the sounds of the jungle at night, with the possibility to spot small alligators (or other nightly creatures). Alligators are spotted because their eyes shine like small red lights. Once the alligator is spotted by the guide's spotlight, he will try to catch a small alligator with his own hands and bring it on to the canoe, and a brief explanation of their habitat follows. The alligator will then be safely released back to the river. (No harm is done to any of the animals).

Note: During "High Water Level" season (from April to August) and on full moon evenings, it might be difficult to find alligators

Overnight at the selected lodge.

DAY 3 AMAZON: AMAZON ECOPARK JUNGLE LODGE (B, L, D)

---

Today, proceed on Nature Hike. Biodiversity is the main characteristics of ECOPARK. It includes uncatalogued species in virgin rainforest, natural savannahs and creeks. Several streams of crystal clear warm water also run through the local. During tour the guide will lead clients, educating them about the local flora & fauna, how and where to find edible fruits and potable water, first aid , how to find their way in the forest and much more.

Visit To The Caboclo's House, depart the lodge on boat or motorized canoe, accompanied by a Bilingual guide to learn about the traditions and customs of local Amazonians "Natives". Overnight at the selected lodge.

---

Today, visit to the "Meeting of the Waters" Departs to ECOPARK on board of a regional double deck boat. The boat goes down the Negro River navigating along the shore of the City of Manaus, allowing passengers to view the Amazonas Theater, the Port of Manaus, the Customs and the interesting aspects of the local life - the stilt houses for instance. Arrival at The Meeting of the Waters by 11h30am. It's a spectacular merge of Negro and Solimões Rivers. From this point on both rivers form the famous Amazon River that runs all the way to the Atlantic Ocean. The waters of the two rivers run together for about 12kms, side by side, without mixing. The phenomenon happens due to differences in temperature, density and speed of the waters of the rivers. Overnight at the selected lodge.

Tour to Machu Picchu begins with a train ride to Aguas Calientes. This town is also known as "Machu Picchu pueblo" and is the last stop before entering the remains of the most important archaeological site in Peru. Here you can visit train station, a craft market, restaurants and hotels of different categories for those who prefer to spend the night at the foot of the mountain and climb it early. Finally, after a short transfer by bus you will reach Machu Picchu, a masterpiece of engineering and architecture that served as a sanctuary and retreat for the Inca Pachacutec (1438 - 1572). Machu Picchu, which means "Old Mountain", is considered a World Heritage by the UNESCO and one of the new seven wonders of the world. (Note: *Luggage: Please pack an overnight bag for this journey. Due to luggage restrictions aboard the trains to/from Machu Picchu, passengers may only take (1) one small handbag weighing no more than 5 kg (11 lbs). Overnight in Aguas Calientes.

DAY 5 AGUAS CALIENTES – CUSCO (B)

Today's morning is at leisure. You can optionally return to Machu Picchu and visit any of the attractions of the citadel.

Late, head to the train station of Aguas Calientes and from there take the train back to the Ollanta station. A vehicle will transfer you from the train station of Ollantaytambo to your hotel in Cusco. Overnight in Cusco.

DAY 6 CUSCO – PUNO (B,L)

Today you will be transferred from hotel to bus station. A tourist bus will take you from Cusco to Puno making stops in various places. First you will visit the districts of Andahuaylillas with its beautiful baroque churches. Then go to Checacupe, and once the visit is over, you will be transferred to restaurant to enjoy a delicious lunch at a local restaurant. The next stop is at La Raya, the highest point on route (4,338 m.a.s.l.) before reaching Puno. On arriving the bus terminal you will be transferred to your hotel. Overnight in Puno.

DAY 7 DEPART PUNO (B)

In the morning you will be picked up from Puno's lake port and transferred to the floating islands of the Uros - an ancestral society that inhabits a series of artificial islands built with totora, a reef that grows in the lake.

Later you will be transferred from your hotel to the airport for your flight back home.
