

IBRT Certification Application Checklist

Required:

- The IBRT Certification Application
- The Short Answer Exam (This exam is not required if you have been trained by an IBRT-accredited program.)
- Supplement to IBRT Certification Application
- Number of Past Life Sessions Form
- You are required to submit Zoom Video recordings of two past life sessions conducted by you with subjects who have signed an Informed Consent Form for their release to IBRT. You must provide photocopies of your releases, if requested. [Note: graduates of IBRT-accredited training programs need submit only one recorded session.]
- Note: Any recorded session with inaudible sound will not be accepted. You must record your Zoom sessions in the GALLERY MODE so that both the therapist and the client are side by side on the screen. Sit as close to the camera and microphone as possible for clear sound. Make sure both therapist and client are fully visible on the screen so facial expressions and body movements can be seen. DO NOT use any background music for the sessions. You will email the Zoom recording file to Info@ibrt.org.
- Photocopies of diplomas, certificates of completion, licenses, and other verifying documentation
- Two Professional Recommendations sent directly from the recommending professionals to IBRT by mail or email to info@ibrt.org
- Check or money order (or payment on our website through PayPal) to cover the costs of processing this application (non-refundable) and a $75 certification fee for one year, which is refundable if your application for certification is not accepted by IBRT, for a total of $265

Optional:

- A copy of your professional resume
- Supplemental statements to assist in the evaluation of your qualifications
