

Scott County Humane Society Highlight

A litter of 4 puppies that had been dumped with ZERO socialization have been helping youth at SMS pilot a 4-H program called Pawsitive Choices. The students are training the dogs basic obedience skills while gaining self-esteem and community service. These puppies are doing FANTASTIC and will be available for adoption on September 22nd!

Adoption fees are $85 to approved adopters. To get approved or get more information on these puppies contact mmcneell@purdue.edu. Also don't forget to check out our website to view all of our available dogs (and cats) - <http://www.sisaveapet.com/>

The Indiana 4-H mission is to provide real life educational opportunities that develop young people who positively impact their community and world.

Purdue University is an equal opportunity/equal access/affirmative action institution
