

Mid-Cities Modern Quilters

MCMQ Guild Board Meeting

October 18, 2022 12 pm

Attendees: Quorum present (Phylecia, Donna, Carol, Mary, Earl)

Agenda:

Introduction/Last Meeting Review

1. Welcome
2. Approve Sept Minutes
  - Mary 1st, Earl 2nd
  - Unanimously Approved

New Guild Business:

1. Treasurer's Report –Earl Benzenhafer
2. Ending balance, $2901.72.
3. Upcoming Meeting Programs – Mary Dixon
  - a. November – Voting for Elections, also a holiday ornament – want to make 50+ for NEED. Last date for Prez Challenge quilts. Also bring canned/nonperishable food for NEED.
  - b. December – Award President's Star Challenge; Christmas party appetizers and 3 FQ for game. May need to provide drinks.

2023:

January UFOs or Kool Kits to Steal and announce March “block” swap trades if we are doing that

February Old to New or Slow Sewing...Hexies

March Get to know our members Would You Rather? and “block” SWAP trades

April Paper Piecing (freezer paper and other)

May Old to New or Slow Sewing Hexes

June Picture This and announce the annual SWAP

July Charity Sew in

August Hand Quilting

Sept SWAP

Oct Folder Flower technique

Nov Star ornaments

Dec Party and Play

4. Media: Donna Thornton has been tracking hits to our Facebook and Instagram pages. She is posting pictures to keep up interest. 512 Instagram followers and 216 FB.

5. Charity –We still need port cath pillows from time to time. Project Linus ones available to distribute at meetings.
6. Raffle Quilt - $1 per ticket, Hollis Threads said they will capture the sales for us – they have until Oct 29. Quilt at the St. Vincent Chili Cookout Oct 29. Displayed at Must Love Fabric in November.
7. Raffle quilt – committee to organize a group quilt.
8. Ideas to publicize the guild – business cards (Earl printed), phone pocket? Develop QR code.
9. Formed a committee to solicit President and Treasurer role at the August meeting. Voting in November – after review of the bylaws, all offices need election even if mid term.
10. Reviewed the 2023 proposed budget.
11. Next board meeting is Nov 17 at 11:30. We should invite new board members to this or the December meeting.

Meeting Closed at 1:00 pm.