Newsletter/Website: The milestone form has been taken down. It needs to be updated. Discussion of a new form for trail mileage. Chris Ferri will be taking on the responsibility for milestones/mileage information. A newsletter will be going out in a few weeks. It will include a paper ballot in the newsletter for voting. The membership form needs to be updated.

Old Business:

November Trail Ride – Chris reported there were nine riders that participated. It was a beautiful day. Discussion about moving the ride to the spring this year instead of so late in the season. The Board would like to thank Chris Ferri for running the event and also thank Amanda Hall for helping out that day.

November Versatility – Karen reported there were 19 riders that participated in the event. Everything ran smoothly and the event was completed by mid afternoon. The Board would like to thank Karen Quigley and Amanda Hall for running the event.

Ron's Body Works – The club has been running a raffle to win a generous gift card donated by Ron's Body Works. A limited number of raffle chances will be sold. Discussion of also advertising the raffle online.

Year-End – Discussion of milestone awards for 2020 and 2021. Discussion of prizes for division winners and prizes for multiple division winners. Banquet-in-a-Bag discussion of what to include was held including possible videos, pictures, letters, etc.
