Newsletter/Website: Elizabeth will include in the upcoming winter newsletter information about the Christmas party, other upcoming events and final points.

Old Business:

October Versatility: The versatility competition held at Balmy Acres was a big success. There were 19 riders that competed. The judges were great and the day ran smoothly. Thank you to Sean and Karen Quigley for running the event.

October Fun Ride: Chris Ferri ran the trail ride at Goddard Park. There were 21 riders. A huge thank you to Chris for donating the awesome lunch that was served and thank you to Amanda Hall for also helping.

BEACH Ride: The BEACH ride held at Rexhame Beach was a huge success. There were 37 riders. A lot of money was raised for charities to be decided later. A huge thank you to Charlene and Dave Stober who ran the day and served a great lunch.

New Business:

2019 Events Calendar

Christmas Party: Discussion of prices, raffles, crafts, centerpieces, Santa and stockings. Micaele will put together an absentee ballot online for those who cannot attend and vote for the Board positions in person.

Banquet: Discussion about the banquet on January 18, 2020 at the Pembroke Country Club including menu, awards letters, awards, centerpieces and scholarships.
