Housing Market Trends

Market activity has picked up on the Eastern Shore this spring. May has followed in April's footsteps with strong new pending sales and closed sales in 2026 compared to 2025. There were 414 new pending sales on the Maryland Eastern Shore, an increase of 11.3% year-over-year. Closed sales were up 11.1%. Both metrics are up roughly 5% year-to-date pointing to the improving spring activity this year. Dorchester and Talbot counties have significant gains with pending and closed sales up by double-digits year-to-date.

Sellers have also been more active. There were 425 new listings in May 2026, a 7.9% increase over a year ago. So far in 2026, there are 6.2% more new listings than in 2025.

New listing gains have translated to higher inventory, up 19.4% at the end of May. Still, inventory is still very low, with single-family detached inventory, in particular, far below 2019 levels.

Market Outlook

The reemergence of activity on the Eastern Shore, particularly in the last two months, shows promise for 2026. Both buyer and seller activity has improved yet market headwinds remain. Rates, inflation, and consumer unease may hold back transactions that would have been unleashed in more favorable conditions. There will continue to be give and take in the Eastern Shore market.
