

Dinesh Sastry – AdvisoryCloud Profile Summary

Strategic advisor, political rainmaker, and business architect with over 25 years of elite experience advising heads of state, global CEOs, political campaigns, and emerging founders. I bring a unique cross-sectoral lens combining high-level U.S. political strategy, Silicon Valley investment intelligence, and deep-rooted spiritual insight.

As a trusted confidant to former Presidents, Vice Presidents, Governors, and Cabinet officials, I've built national campaigns, advised on geopolitical affairs, and driven multi-million dollar fundraising efforts across government, business, and nonprofit sectors. My advisory portfolio spans public-private partnerships, political organizing, early-stage venture funding, international relations, media production, and cultural diplomacy.

I served as a core strategist to Governor Jerry Brown's prophetic 1992 presidential campaign, and later advised the Clinton-Gore White House, Obama-Biden campaigns, and Kamala Harris's rise. I've worked with top fundraisers, campaign managers, and international diplomats across Washington, DC, California, and India.

Today, I lead Illuminant Capital Holdings, a strategic advisory and venture development firm focused on bridging global capital with meaningful storytelling and legacy-building ventures—including the screen adaptation of The Mysterious Story of God.

Core Strengths:

- Political & Government Strategy
- Strategic Fundraising
- Business Development
- Global Diplomacy & Cultural Intelligence
- Boardroom Wisdom

Ideal Advisory Roles:

- Venture-backed startups seeking U.S. political entry or government relations
- Media or production companies exploring global narratives and intellectual property
- Family offices or investment firms seeking cultural, spiritual, and political insight
- Public affairs firms or nonprofits tackling democracy, governance, and civil society
- Technology companies seeking ethics, global expansion, or bipartisan strategy