

Association Division Packet for PCJLC

(Section 10 of Official Rule Book)

SECTION 10: Association Division Rules and Requirements

- A. The Association Division is under the leadership of the PCJLC and will be overseen by the Association Superintendents.
- B. Members must maintain an active junior membership within a Livestock Breed Association. Proof of Breed Association Junior Membership must be submitted at the species fair receiving.
- C. Members must participate under the guidance of a designated leader recognized by the PCJLC. This leader can be the participant's parent or a group leader. For Association leaders to be recognized by the PCJLC, they must complete and submit an informational form, participate in a training conducted by the Assoc. Superintendents, read and maintain a copy of the official rule book, and agree to the PCJLC Code of Conduct. All items must be completed and approved before the date of the species ear-tagging, and renewed annually. Leaders must be Pinal County Residents, or qualify as an Immediate Family member of an exhibitor eligible under the exemption outlined in section 1 letter A.
- D. Members must participate under the guidance of a recognized club. In order to be approved as a recognized club, the following criteria must be met
  - 1. Must have a designated leader approved by the PJLC
  - 2. Must have at least 5 youth members from at least 3 families, unless previously affiliated with a certified association club that meet all association requirements approved by the association superintendent.
  - 3. Must have a minimum of 5 regular club meetings per year and submit calendar to Assoc. leaders. If unable to meet this criteria, you must apply for an exemption in writing to the Assoc. Superintendents
  - 4. (This section is intentionally left blank due to a previous rule change).
  - 5. Apply for club status approval with the Assoc. Superintendents annually.
- E. The association member's residence must be within the geographical boundaries of Pinal County. The only exception to this rule would apply to any youth, regardless of their residence, who participated in the Pinal County Fair Junior Livestock Division prior to and including 2005 as a member of a Pinal County 4-H Club or FFA Chapter, will along with their immediate siblings, be allowed to continue their full participation in the Pinal County Jr. Livestock Program abiding under the rules and regulations of the association division. (If residence is in question, youth will verify eligibility through the Association superintendents.)

Age Requirements: Exhibitors must have had their 8th birthday before January 1, 2021 and exhibitors cannot have passed their 19th birthday prior to January 1, 2021 to be eligible to show.
