Treasurer & Auction Report- Cory Brown

- No change from the previous meeting.

4- H Director

- Victor- This month is the beginning of the new 4-H year. They are excited to get new leaders and encourage leaders to sign up. More than willing to help get everyone in. 4-H office has permission to hire an additional representative, please encourage any eligible candidate to apply.
- Kathy- Inaugural 4-H Show in Tucson will be March 4-6, 2022. Non terminal, great opportunity to practice, skill building competitions, for many different species.

Standing Committee Reports

- Beef- List of potential judges. If there is no conflict they will move forward with selecting a judge. Bylaws state the superintendents may select a judge, please let us know when a contract is signed. 28 animals were tagged. Show numbers look great and they are excited about having a good heifer division.
- Lamb- nothing new to report. Lamb and goat judge is Craig Bowers. Cory has tags to distribute tonight.
- Swine- list of three potential judges Lynsee Powlin, Garrit Sproll, Seth Keplinger.
  - Motion to keep all three names on potential list by Melissa Campbell. 2nd by Dan Benedict. Motion passes.
- Goat- Nothing to report.
- Veal- Nothing to report
- Carcass- would like an awards banquet during fair rather than prior to.
- Association- emails have been sent- nothing new to report.
- Standing Committees- reviewed and reminded to please meet.
- Show Camp- due to unforeseen event it is best to postpone the camp until 2023.

Old Business:

- Boundary Exception
  - Discussion on previously accepted exhibitors and the rules for accepting exhibitors from other counties. 4-H does not have a boundary exception on family in question. Family has been showing for many years in the county and is on the list for local 4-H leader. This was brought up because of a request in a prior meeting this year.
  - Kathy brought forms in to show the process that 4-H members go through once she receives a request then interviews families and other representatives before making decision.

- Discussion on what the rule states along with bylaws. There is not a motion to change the status on the families' ability to show here. They have been accept in a previous meeting dated in 2018.

Call to the Public:

- None

New Business:

- Cory has ear tags and buttons to give to superintendents tonight. Pigs 300, veal 100, lambs 175, goats 100.
- Tag in information will come from to superintendents by December 10th.
