

Mike
Eberhardt

Vietnamese RF/PF compound located in Ben Tre Province

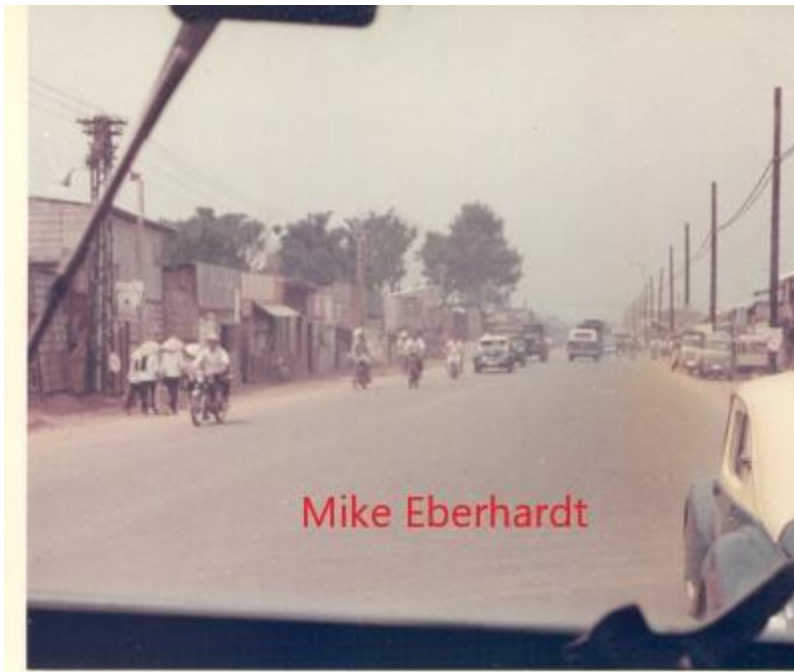

Mike sitting on what remained of their storage room located beneath the tower of the compound where MAT IV-5 lived. Their dwelling was in front of the jeep. The jeep belonged to the District Chief.

Mike “chilling out” after a rocket attack. Notice the pock marks on the building to his right.

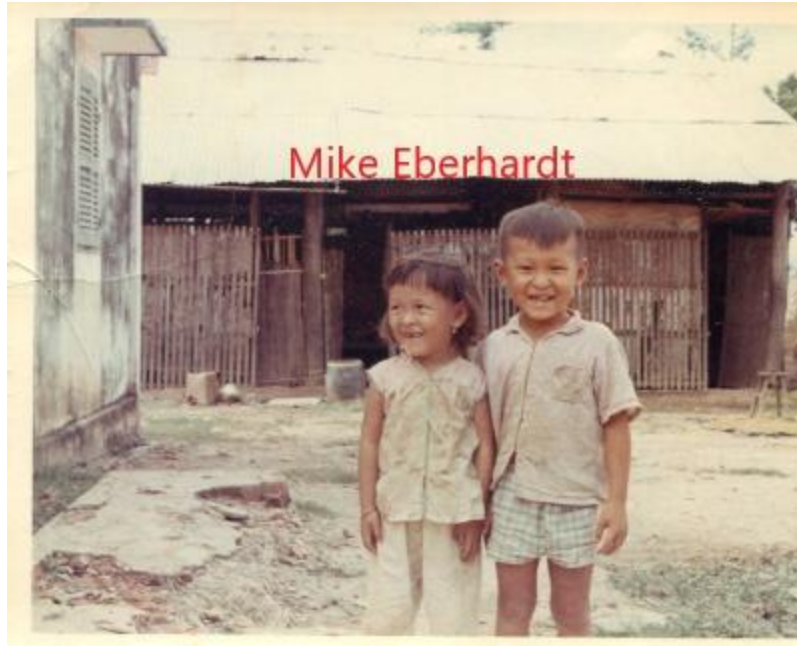

Mike with a local boy in Ham Long.

Jeep ride on the way to Saigon to get paid.

Local festival celebration spotted on trip to Saigon.

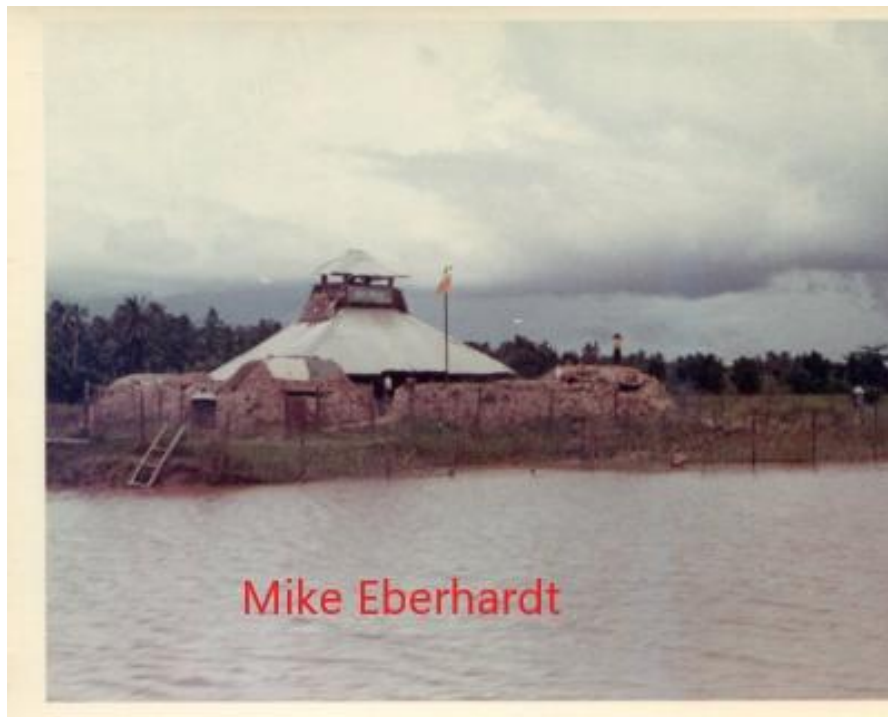

Couple of RF/PF kids in our compound.

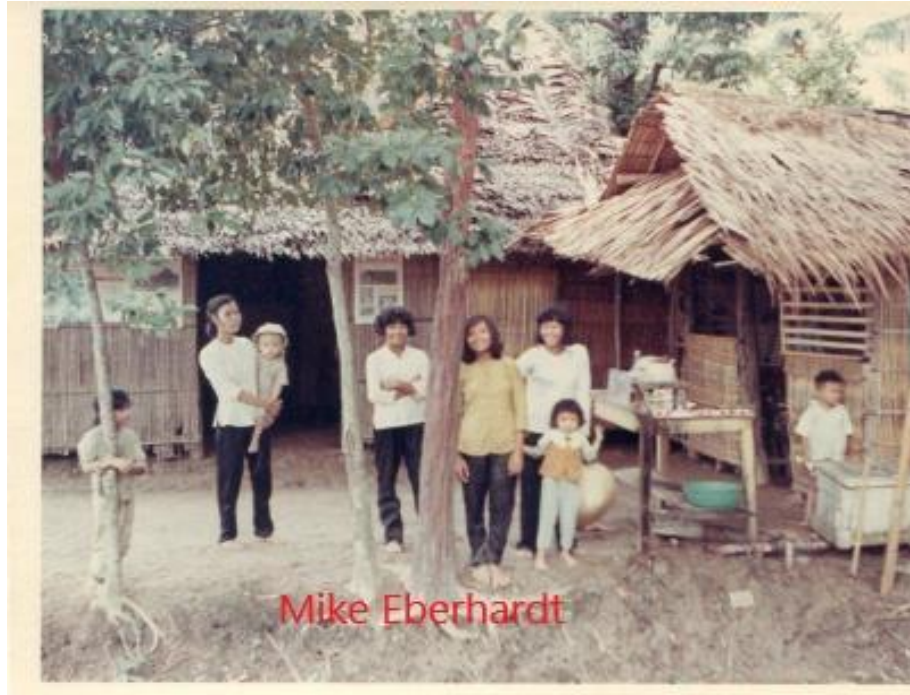

Looked up from the table in our sleeping area while writing a letter. She was standing there. Daughter of local soldier. She was my friend.

Twenty dollars in local currency. Don't know how it made it home.

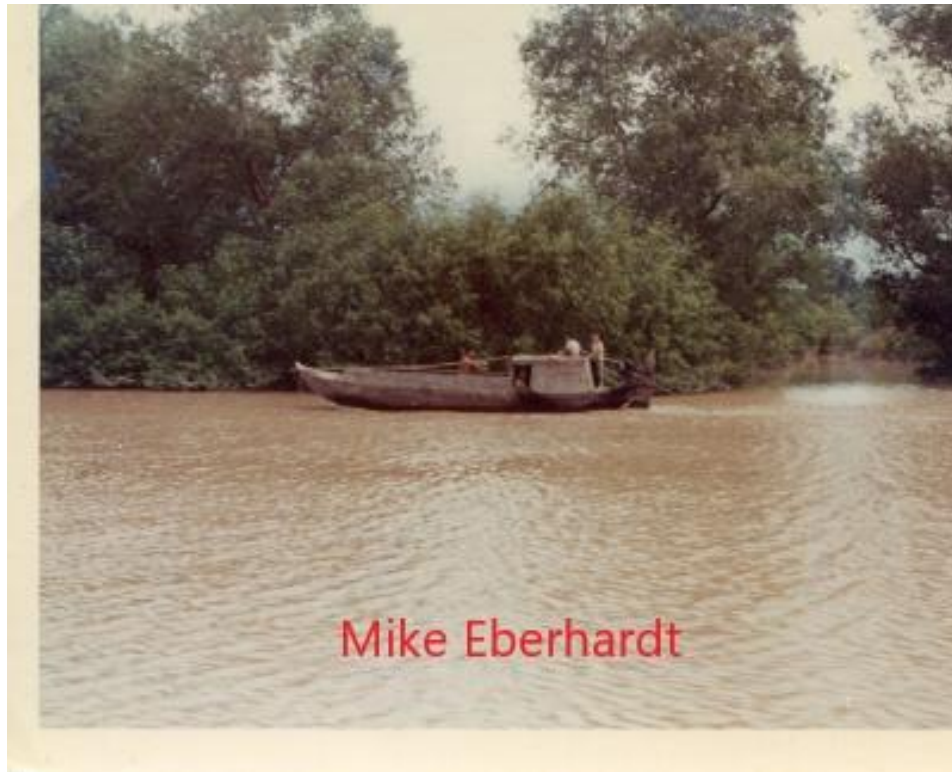

RF/PF outpost along the Mekong River near Ham Long.

Women in a local village entered during mission. Notice the “coffee shop” to the right. “Local Starbucks.”

The morning after a rocket attack. Team housing in the background. What was left of our jeep.

Typical boat on the Mekong River.

Rise and shine.

District team medic and interpreter with local kids.

Just arrived on MAT IV-5. John Wayne I ain't.

Kien Hoa district building

Our interpreter Fang and me. Fang was killed on Oct. 7, 1970 when our team was ambushed.