FROM THE PRESIDENT

On Saturday, August 27th we held our first monthly jam session. I was pleased to see the fine turn-out, over twenty musicians and a number of spectators. I talked with the new Marketing Director at the Town & Country Shopping Center and he said that if a group wanted to jam by the Railroad display room, back of the restaurant it would be OK. (Like we did last month.)

Anyone who has paid dues but not yet received a membership card should contact our secretary, John Andrus. Spread the word to other potential members; they can still join as charter members.

Jam sessions are more fun when the instruments are in tune; maybe we should have an area near the door with an electronic tuner set up to check our tunings. Thanks to Bill Gilmore for bringing his tuner in the past.

News items related to bluegrass & old time music people, events, etc. are welcomed for our newsletters. And we are adding a classified ads section which will be free for our members to sell, buy, swap, etc. (musically related items only). People driving a long distance to our jam sessions may want to put an ad in for car pooling, etc.

WnDBOTMA member Tom Hemmesch will enter the accordion contest at Yankton, SD on September 17th. I plan on attending this contest also, then travel on to the Branson, Missouri area for an Ozark vacation; I will report back on the musical highlights in a future issue.

Remember: "Music self played is happiness self made."

- Selmer Moen, Treasurer

ROADSIDE THEATER PLAYS MINOT

Mountain music and folklore directly from the Appalachians was available in Minot last week as the Roadside Theater presented a variety of workshops and performances. Tommy Bledsoe, Angelyn DeBord, and Ron Short captivated audiences ranging from 5 - 80 years old with story-telling and mountain music. Of particular interest to this organization were the banjo and guitar playing of Tommy and the fiddling and guitar playing of Ron. Both are fine professional musicians. Their albums are available through June Appal Recordings, Box 743, Whitesburg, KY 41858.

WNDBOTMA members, Jeanne Wengel, Selmer Moen, Jimmy Tengesdal, Tom Hemmesch, and John Andrus jammed with Tommy and Ron and had a great time. Thank you to the Mouse River Players for bringing Roadside Theater to town.

New Learning Opportunity!

One of the purposes of our organization is education. We learn much by playing and singing together informally and that's great. In addition, WNDOTMA plans to provide more formal learning sessions for our members. We will start at a very basic level and the instruction will grow as the needs require and as our resources allow. Therefore, we present the Introduction to Bluegrass & Ol' Time Music Instruments Series.

Prior to each monthly jam session we will feature an instrument and give a beginner's level workshop designed to provide a basic understanding of how the instrument is played in the bluegrass and old-time music setting.

The workshops are not just for those who play or wish to play the instrument; they are for anyone interested in learning more about our kind of music.

Introduction to
BLUEGRASS & OL' TIME MUSIC INSTRUMENTS

WORKSHOP ONE

THE DOBRO* GUITAR

Presented by Selmer Moen

1:00 pm Sat., Sept. 24

Town & Country Shopping Center
Minot, ND

Just prior to the
Western ND Bluegrass
& Ol' Time Music Assoc.
Monthly Jam Session.

*Dobro is a trade name; the more correct but less familiar term is "resophonic guitar."

TOPICS TO BE COVERED:

History of the Dobro
Masters of the Dobro
Playing Techniques
Left Hand/Right Hand/Lead/Back-up

Dobro Standards Jam - Play along with Selmer on some Dobro tunes:
Steel Guitar Rag (G); I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry (C);
Maiden's Prayer (G); Wabash Cannonball (G)

NOTE: This workshop is a general introduction to the Dobro. You need not have a Dobro nor even want to play the Dobro to attend this session. Bring your instrument to help with the Jam at the end.

Introducing the Tune of the Month

Each month we hope to feature a piece of music that people can work up in preparation for future jam sessions. In a year's time we will have established a common repertoire of 12 songs, which should help when we are all sitting there wondering what to play next!

The first song, I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry, was selected for two important reasons:

1. It is one song that Selmer will be playing in the Dobro Jam at the end of his workshop.
2. It's a relatively basic tune but it is, in my opinion, truly a work of art.

Hope you enjoy getting it ready for the 25th.
