DONOR SPOTLIGHT

ADITH MOURSUND can always be found sitting in one of the pews close to the front of the sanctuary on Sunday mornings. She makes sure that she is there in time to hear the prelude on the organ.

Adith and her siblings, Elaine and Larry, loved growing up in Boulder, Colorado where her father was an elementary school teacher. In 1944, her family moved to Eugene. Her father became Director of Special Education with the 4J School District and held that position until he retired. They lived on Moss Street and, as luck would have it, a young man named Robert Moursund lived right across the street. Adith and Robert became friends, fell in love, and were married. Robert worked for Eugene 4J Schools as a vice-principal at Sheldon from 1965 to 1980, and at Churchill from 1980 to 1991. Robert died of a heart-attack in 1992.

Music has always been a big part of Adith's life. During her younger years, she played the piano, violin, viola, and enjoyed the percussion section in the marching band. Adith played in the Eugene Junior Symphony. She also played in the marching band in high school and at the University of Oregon. As she watches the UO

Marching Band today, Adith admires their classy uniforms and, humorously, recalls the attire during her time in the band: any pants and shirts that were green and/or yellow.

Adith grew up in the Methodist Church and joined First United Methodist when her family moved to Eugene in 1944. The church choir was started in the old building on Willamette in 1948 and Adith sang in the choir for more than 40 years.

Over the years, she has been an active member of this congregation as a musician and a caring member of the United Women's Fellowship. Concerts at First is forever grateful to Adith for her generous financial gifts to the organ fund and Concerts at First.

Concerts at First relies on the generosity of Adith and other "Friends of Concerts at First" to fulfill our mission: bringing high caliber, affordable music performances for the entire community to enjoy. Your donations are tax deductible, and help ensure the continuity of this series for years to come. Financial gifts of any size are always welcome, as well as donations in memory or in honor of a loved one. See Artistic Director Brad Schultz for more information, or visit www.concertsatfirsteugene.com.

TODAY'S PERFORMER

A native of Lawrence, Kansas, Katherine Burk is an organist, conductor, composer, and soprano who currently serves as Organ Scholar at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral in Portland, Oregon. She recently completed doctoral studies in organ performance at the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music, where she studied organ with Christopher Young and choral conducting with Dominick DiOrio and Betsy Burleigh. A graduate of both IU and St. Olaf College and an enthusiastic church musician and educator, Katie has served as a member of the choral faculty at both the RSCMA King's College Course and at the Presbyterian Association of Musicians Conference on Worship and Music at Montreat. Named to the Diapason's "Twenty Under Thirty" Class of 2019 and honored with IU's Wennerstrom Fellowship in recognition of pedagogical excellence in the fields of music theory and aural skills, she has served Episcopal parishes in Minneapolis, MN, Bloomington, IN, and Topeka, KS. Her choral compositions are published by Selah.

When she's not practicing or working, Katie enjoys hiking, running, cooking extravagant meals in her small kitchen, and exploring Oregon wineries with her fiancée Dan.
