Interpretation guidelines

The value "5" represents "Strongly Agree" while the value "1" represents "Strongly Disagree". Keep in mind that students completing their course evaluations does not necessarily mean they answered each question. As a result, for some items, you may notice that the total number of responses is lower than it is for others. In these cases, the student decided to skip this question. Students also may have skipped the open-ended questions, thus leaving you with fewer responses in these sections.

Comparative Analysis

4. The assignments helped me to learn.

Comment

-There weren't any assignments except for the readings.

-There weren't many assignments exactly, but the readings were very helpful. A good idea might be to have reading outline assignments to make sure the students are actually understanding what the readings have to offer. I know in other classes it has helped me to slow down and truly analyze the material more closely.

5. The instructor was readily available (e.g., email, office hours, or one-on-one consultation).

Comment

-I personally had a hard time meeting with him, because I had to go to class this semester during his office hours, and because of this I could not meet with him one on one if I needed help understanding some things.

-He doesn't reply fast to emails. Takes a day or even days.

-I don't know since I never tried to contact him outside of class.

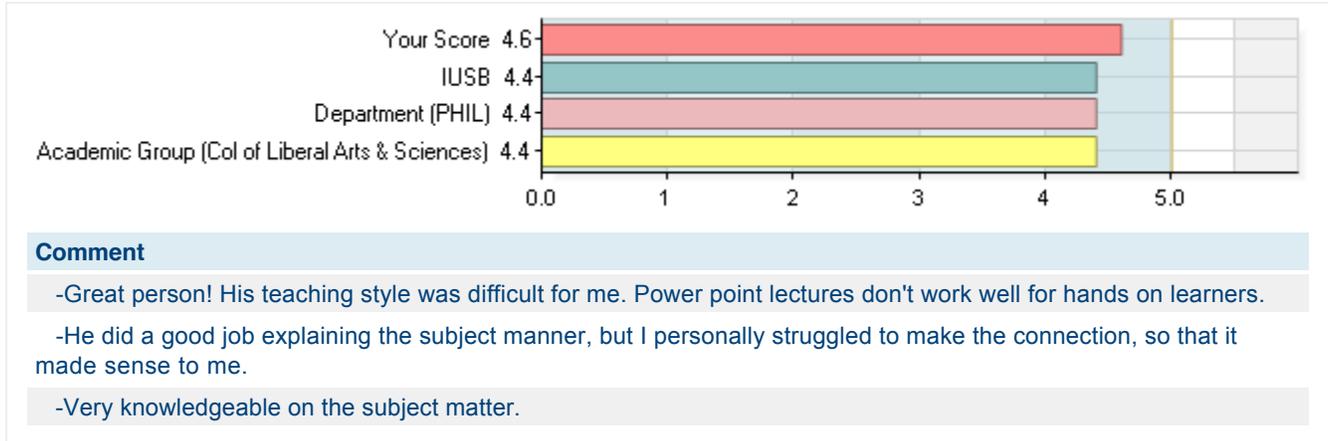

6. The instructor provided helpful feedback (e.g., on assignments, exams, presentations).

Comment

-There was minimal feedback given after tests and quizzes.

Even though it was his first year teaching (I believe), he tried his best to make a dull subject interesting. You could clearly tell he was there to teach us and help us succeed, not fail us for not understanding.

professor was really easy to understand, made it personable and enjoyable in class. how every class should be taught.

Although I had trouble understanding philosophy as a whole, Alex explained it as best as he could and was always willing to help you understand something if you were confused. He wanted you to learn and retain the information and do well.

I really enjoyed this class. Towards the end I thought it became a little less challenging than earlier in the semester. I wish that we could've gotten through everything that was planned in the semester but I also understand that we needed to slow down for more people to catch onto the material that we've been learning.

None

The course was nothing I was interested in but the instructor made the material interesting by asking the students to participate in discussions.
