2022 ANNUAL REPORT

During 2022, we witnessed an increase in all programs and events at Mooreville Arts. Our community responded to our exhibits, classes and workshops, and memberships in record numbers. We are grateful for the support and involvement of so many artists and art enthusiasts.

Some highlights of the year included:

- Georgia O'Keeffe Art Lecture with Mary-Louise Hooper; a free lecture for our community with historical and pictorial information,
- Ask the Artist event with several local artists demonstrating and discussing various media,
- Night Photography and Light Painting Lecture and Workshop with Kevin Adams, aka North Carolina's Night and Waterfall Photographer,
- The 40th anniversary of ArtoberFest,
- The American Watercolor Society International Traveling Exhibit in November and December with over 40 watercolorists represented.

A special thank you to all our 67 volunteers who contributed nearly 5,000 hours of time to Mooreville Arts. We added several new board members, celebrated Linda Fossum's work as treasurer, and hired our second part-time staff member and executive assistant, Jenny Donaghy.

It truly does "take a village" to make things happen! On behalf of the entire board of directors, thank you for being part of the Mooreville Arts community.

Brenda Pokorny, President
