OVERVIEW:

The Mooreville Fine Arts Festival is a fine arts festival at the Charles Mack Citizen Center allowing local and regional selected artists to display and sell original fine art. This festival is presented by Mooreville Arts, located in historic downtown Mooreville, North Carolina. The event is open to the public at no charge and will be promoted and organized by Mooreville Arts. This will be a juried event, with space for up to 70 artists/booths.

ARTWORK:

Acceptable artwork: paintings/drawings, photography, pottery/sculpture, glass, woodwork, fiber, mixed media, fine jewelry and other original handcrafted fine art or artisanal quality work.

Please keep in mind that this is a fine arts festival for 2D and 3D fine artists and high-quality artisans. Items such as candles, soap, craft items, craft kits/molds, wreaths, etc. will not be accepted.

ELIGIBILITY:

Artists must be 18 years of age or older to apply for a space. This is a juried show, so not all applying artists will be accepted.

JURY PANEL:

The organizers will select a panel of Jurors to review the submitted applications and images. Artists will be chosen for this festival based on the submitted materials and images. Jurors will be looking for artists based on the following criteria: the level of artistic talent and skill, originality, craftsmanship, and diversity.

APPLICATION DEADLINES, FEES AND SUBMISSION PROCESS:*Application Deadline:

EVENT WILL BE HELD RAIN OR SHINE - NO RAINCHECKS WILL BE GIVEN

THE VENUE IS A SMOKE-FREE, PET-FREE EVENT

1. Applying or accepted artists may not make special requests for a specific location or placement of their booth(s).
2. Setup for all exhibitors will be on Friday, November 20 (10am-4pm). All items for your booth must be dropped off and in your space by 4:00 on Friday.
Additional time for minor adjustments will be given on Saturday, November 21 from 8-9:30am.
Setup must be completed by 9:30am on Saturday, November 21 (no exceptions).
3. Exhibitors may not break down his or her space prior to 4pm on Sunday, November 22. Any exhibitor whose display is noted as not intact at 4pm on Sunday may lose the opportunity to return the following year.
4. Each exhibitor's space is approximately 10'x10'. A small sign will be provided by the organizers to be placed visibly within your display space. The number is for festival attendees to find your space and to aid emergency personnel in emergency response. This number is to remain visible within your display for the duration of the event.
5. Each exhibitor's space is his or her own gallery space and must look professional. The space is to be set up and broken down entirely by the artist. Friends and/or family members are welcome to assist in the process.
6. Each artist is responsible for all materials and equipment needed for their space (displays, tables, chairs, easels, business signage, tablecloths, etc).
7. Depending on your assigned location, you will have a solid wall or window around the perimeter, or if located in the center, you may be provided with a backdrop (black pipe & drape). Participants may not hang anything on the provided drape or wall space.

It is imperative that you provide your own division between your booth and your "next door neighbors". This divider can be pro-panels, pipe and drape, gridwall, display, display shelves, etc. – be creative! Not all spaces will have pipe & drape dividers provided. Please plan to set up your own division for your space.

8. Exhibitors will be asked to correct any unsatisfactory or unstable displays. Any necessary correction(s) will be at the expense of the artist.
9. Tents and/or outdoor tent frames are strictly prohibited. Indoor framing systems without pitched roofs are acceptable.
10. It is mandatory that all booth tables are properly covered with floor length (from the edge of the table to the floor) table covers. All VISIBLE sides of the table must be covered. All covers must be presentable, pressed and neat. Black table covers are not required to match the provided pipe & drape.

Use of plastic tablecloths, sheets, shower curtains or any type of “makeshift” tablecloths is not permitted. Any necessary correction will be at the expense of the exhibitor.

11. Storage items/containers must be stored behind displays or under tables. Stored items should not be visible. All inventory and personal items must be stored completely out of sight. Your booth should look professional and inviting to the attendee.
12. Exhibitors are to remain within their assigned space. No one is to move or trade spaces without prior permission. NO overage will be allowed. An exhibitor may purchase more than one space if needed, prior to the event. Sharing of spaces/booths is not permitted.
13. Exhibitors must be present with their work for the duration of the festival. Representatives, including spouses, family members or friends may not staff the booth in lieu of the artist for the duration of the festival, but may assist for breaks.
14. Commercially manufactured items and items made from kits or molds may NOT be exhibited.
15. Artists must disclose reproduction or limited-edition information on an individual piece, if not an original.
16. It is recommended that artists have a variety of artwork with different price points. Ex- original artwork of different sizes, prints, cards, etc where applicable
17. Electricity is available for some, but not all booth spaces. If you require lighting, please indicate on the application. There are adequate overhead ceiling lights and natural light throughout the venue.
18. You may visit the venue, the Charles Mack Citizen Center, during their open hours to get an idea of the space and parking. Please do not ask the CMCC staff to show you around, or enter any spaces that are occupied with meetings/conferences. The rooms have clear signage above the doors.
