A GALLERY CRAWL IS COMING TO DOWNTOWN MOOREVILLE!

A Gallery Crawl event for the end of summer will be held on Friday, September 20th from 6-8pm. Participating galleries are: EAST Style House & Gallery; Four Corners Framing & Gallery; Juelerye | Artisan Gallery & Gifts; and Mooreville Arts.

This Gallery Crawl will be an evening when downtown Mooreville galleries offer extended hours for patrons to check out the local art scene. Each gallery will have its own artists, exhibits, and special offerings for the evening, with support and tastings from High Branch brewing. After, visit any of the downtown restaurants, bars and breweries, and it's a whole night out!

EAST Style House + Gallery - Continuing exhibition of Hot Wheels and Tires a solo exhibition of new paintings by California contemporary artist Brian Bent. An icon in surf culture - art, music, style... Brian Bent has been a creative force behind companies like Captain Fin, Becker Surf, Stance and United 50. His surf paintings are exhibited and sold across the globe - EAST is proud to offer a special catalog of race inspired works here in North Carolina.

For the Gallery Crawl, EAST is also proud to display a 62-62 283 Coalbin Roadster engine courtesy of Matt Hurley and the upcoming Old North State Invitational. The engine was raced in the rolling bones speed trials in El Mirage, CA 2018 and featured in the 2019 book "Gas - Oil - Water."
