The art walk and wine tasting event is a fun way to stroll through Downtown Mooreville. While you are checking out some spectacular art pieces that will be on display at various spots, you can also sip on wine provided by local merchants and wineries.

On April 7, in the evening, all MA members and artists in the show will have the opportunity to display their art and set up to paint downtown. The public will be encouraged to visit with the artists.

► For her senior project, Alexia Martin created a mini mural as part of her study of the importance of artwork in communities. This project included participation from the students of East Mooresville Intermediate School. Shelly Zulli, one of the art teachers from Mooresville Arts, was Alexia's mentor during this process. You can now see the piece hanging from the back of the Depot! It reads "Art Is For Everybody", a quote from street artist Keith Haring.

Become a Volunteer Docent at Mooresville Arts!

Mooresville Arts is a nonprofit organization that relies on volunteers to help keep its doors open and to continue to provide art and art appreciation to its members and the community.
