Palette Patter Newsletter Ends with this issue

Dear Mooresville Arts Members,

The May 2017 issue of the Mooresville Arts newsletter, the Palette Patter, will be the last issue you receive. The Board of Directors has decided to suspend the monthly newsletter.

For the last 6 months, we've been tracking how often the newsletter is opened each month. The number of times it is viewed is extremely low. The Board concluded that the time and effort put into a once-a-month publication would be better utilized to ensure more timely communications throughout each month.

In lieu of the newsletter, there are three resources where you will be able to find information about all of Mooresville Arts happenings:

As a member of Mooresville Arts, you will continue to receive reminders and information about upcoming shows, events, and classes via email blasts through MailChimp. Please keep an eye on your email inbox as this will now be the primary means of communication between you and MA.

As always, all important information is on the Mooresville Arts website: www.mooresvillearts.org

The Mooresville Arts Facebook page is also a good resource for information: www.facebook.com/mooresvilleart

The monthly newsletter, Palette Patter, has been a long-standing source of sharing information with Mooresville Arts members, and we wish to thank our Webmaster/Editor, Bruna Coveleski, for her time and effort every month since 2003 in putting this together for us.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I want to thank you for being a member of Mooresville Arts and for your support of the arts and our organization!

Sincerely,

Jessica DeHart

Meet the Wyeths at the Mint

Mooreville Arts has scheduled a field trip to the Mint Museum, Randolph Road, Charlotte for Thursday, June 1 at 11 a.m. for a docent tour.

Three generations of Wyeths are exhibiting at the museum. A once in a lifetime event – so take advantage of the opportunity. The exhibit “The Wyeths: Three Generations, Works from the Bank of America Collection” will be exhibited at the Mint through August 13. Ticket prices are $9 seniors, $10 adults and $6 children.

Contact the Depot to register for the tour. Carpool arrangements from the Depot can be made.

About the Exhibit: For more than a century, the members of the Wyeth family have been renowned for creating works of art that fascinate and captivate the imaginations of their viewers, making the Wyeth tradition one of the most enduring and celebrated legacies in all of American art. The Wyeths: Three Generations, Works from the Bank of America Collection is a testament to the profound artistic impact made by the Wyeth family, providing a window onto the careers of five of the family's artists through more than fifty remarkable paintings and drawings.

Patriarch N.C. Wyeth (1882-1945) was one of the country's foremost illustrators at the turn of the twentieth century. His ability to beautifully traverse fantasy and realism made him one of the most versatile American artists of his time. N.C.'s son Andrew Wyeth (1917-2009) became known for his detailed realism and haunting scenes of American life inspired by the history and beauty of the American northeast. Although not as well-known as her brother, Henriette Wyeth (1907-1997) painted striking portraits, landscapes, and still lifes. She is also represented in the exhibition, as is her husband Peter Hurd (1904-1984), who chronicled the landscape of the American west. Lastly, Andrew's son Jamie (b. 1946) represents the family's third generation of artists. Jamie, too, utilizes a realistic style, but adds his own twist of magic and mystery to his subjects.
