They will grow in their artistic confidence as well as learn new ways of expression using their own style.

Leighton Isaacs has been teaching art for over 30 years to children, teenagers and adults and it is her passion to see each student grow in skill, originality and confidence in their unique artistic expression. As an experienced and skilled artist, she has developed specific ways of teaching artists at every level to increase technical skill as well as to develop a personal vision for their artmaking. Leighton loves to inspire and encourage her students to be creative problem solvers and has successfully prepared many young people for careers in the arts. Her students are her own greatest inspiration!

Last day to register is 4 PM Thursday, August 1

Designed for students with some experience in watercolor

$210 for Mooresville Arts Members

Watercolor is such a luminous medium! It is Linda's goal to have it grab you and become a passion as it did for her!!

In this 2-day workshop, students will be designing paintings from the photographs they have chosen. Students will not be copying them, but cropping and rearranging elements to simplify and push their creativity, having fun, and taking some risks with color and design.

The day begins with students gathered around the instructor who works with each student in turn and talks about a selected photo. Different ways to approach the subject will be discussed. All students will take away from these sessions new ways to work from their own photos.

Demos are done as called for based on the various subjects.

The workshop supply list is on the website www.lindagriffin.com. Feel free to contact Linda via email or text if you have any questions about supplies.

EARLY BIRD SPECIAL: A $15 discount is available for those who register prior to July 20:
$195 for Mooresville Arts Members
$230 for non-members

Artist Bio: Linda's training in art began in Europe where she grew up as the daughter of an Army officer. It was there her love of architecture and travel began to develop. A Washington DC native, she achieved early success in oil painting in Virginia and New Jersey. Upon discovering watercolor, however, she realized her true medium. Her favorite subjects are regional architecture with bright, bold color transitions, usually including the addition of flowers and strong shadows. She enjoys painting large pieces that require the viewer to stand back! Most recently she has produced a series of bold abstracts which have ignited a new passion.

Before moving to North Carolina, she maintained her own gallery Waterside Watercolors in Occoquan, Virginia, which is a suburb of Washington DC. It was here she painted, taught and sold her work for 7 years.

She is a signature member of The North Carolina Watercolor Society. She lives in North Carolina showing her work through galleries, from her studio, and teaches private lessons and workshops.

Her corporate collectors include the Marriott Corporation who own 27 original paintings and The Industrial Research Center for Japan, Tokyo each owning more than 26 original watercolors. Many private collectors owning more than 40 paintings each.
