Bartlett Roofing Limited opposes all forms of bribery and corruption, large as well as small, whether initiated by corrupt officials or corrupt companies or individuals, and whether it takes place in the public or private sector, in the UK or abroad.

To adhere to the policy, we will:

- Ensure all Group personnel are provided with training on the BAR Policy on anti-bribery and corruption so they can recognise the signs and take steps to avoid it;
- Encourage employees, subcontractors and business partners to report any suspicions of bribery and/or corruption through formal 'whistle blowing' channels or more informally through our Group 'open door' policy which enables any individuals to discuss any concerns they may have with senior management in a confidential environment;
- Have an understanding of how bribery may occur during the Group's operations and the impacts this could have, implementing appropriate control measures as necessary to prevent occurrence;
- Use appropriate disciplinary and other sanctions for violations of the policy and/or laws against bribery and corruption.

Failure to comply with this policy may result in disciplinary action, including dismissal or appropriate sanctions, in addition to civil and criminal charges.
