

Saint Olaf Catholic Church

August 2, 2026 * Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Message from Father Andrzej:

"Panta Rhei" said an ancient sage Heraclitus: nothing stays forever, especially the good things in life. On behalf of our Saint Olaf Parish I express my and your gratitude to Heather Bonn as she takes her retirement from Parish Ministry at the office. I am grateful for her dedication, professionalism, Christian attitude, and extra mile walk whenever needed. Heather was in charge of Marriage Ministry, Safe Environment, Baptisms, Sacramental Records, and many lesser yet important details of Parish Ministry - always working with a smile, listening patiently, and helping.

I am pleased that our Parishioner Dawn Flynn, who recently retired from Army service, will take over this important ministry.

May God bless & strengthen both of them.

New! Altar Ministry. We are seeking help caring for our Altar Linens and Priest/Deacon vestments. Cleaning is needed monthly on a flexible, rotating schedule for you to take home and launder the linens and vestments. Occasional mending is needed on a limited basis. The Church will supply you with instructions/training and all materials. Ideally, we have 6-8+ people join this new ministry team so each person will only clean two times a year.
