Good Deeds: A man makes no noise over a good deed, but passes on to another as a vine to bear grapes again in season. (Aurelius)

5. THE OLD MASTERS WAGES: I met a dear old man today, who wore a Masonic pin, It was old and faded like the man, It's edges were worn quite thin. I approached the park bench where he sat, To give the old brother his due, I said, "I see you've traveled east," He said, "I have, have you." I said, "I have, and in my day Before the all seeing sun, I played in the rubble, with Jubala, Jubalo and Jubalum." He shouted, "don't laugh at the work my son, It's good and sweet and true, And if you've traveled as you said, You should give these things their due. "The word, the sign the token, The sweet Masonic prayer, The vow that all have taken, Who've climbed the inner stair. The wages of a Mason, are never paid in gold, but the gain comes from contentment, when you're weak and growing old. You see, I've carried my obligations, For almost fifty years, It has helped me through the hardships and the failures full of tears. Now I'm losing my mind and body, Death is near but I don't despair, I've lived my life upon the level, And I'm dying upon the square. Sometimes the greatest lesson, Are those that are learned anew, And the old man in the park today has changed my point of view. To all Masonic brothers, The only secret is to care, May you live your life upon the level, May you part upon the square.

Good Works are seeds that, after sowing, return to us a continual harvest; and memory of noble actions is more enduring than monuments of marble. (Albert Pike)

Poverty: It is not the man who has too little, but the man who craves more, that is poor.

I would also like to thank Brother Steve Purvis for power washing all the remaining window awnings on the building. They were dirty but not as faded as the front one which receives most of the sun rays each day. Thank you Steve for all the time and hard work cleaning those , they look great.

10. HOSPITALITY GROUP NEEDED: If any brother knows of a company, sports group, caterer, or anyone who might be interested in leasing the Scottish Rite Center during the upcoming Master's Golf Tournament please notify the Secretary. After 9 years we have lost the company which leased our facility and the moneys which it generated. Those moneys supported our Rite Care Clinic which was established several years ago, our many charities to include the Scottish Rite Children's Hospital and many local charities, help renovate many of the areas of our facility and helped offset the declining membership dues for monthly operation. We also decided to start renting the facility for weddings, business meetings, birthday parties, rehearsal dinners etc during the year. We are working on specifics and trying to find a member who has this type of experience to manage and oversee these rentals. If you are interested please notify the secretary.
