MUSIC & ARTS FESTIVAL

2024 Sponsorship Deck

Event: Saturday July 13, 2024

12n - 2am

What Is Sheometry?

Sheometry is a collective Music and Arts Festival with a goal to leverage multiple genres of art and extend intergenerational exposure to benefit innercity, blighted communities throughout the United States.

This festival will lend its center stage to primarily female artists of local, national and international acclaim as well as up-and-coming artists from the area. Our ultimate goal is to replicate this model in similar communities across the country where access to the arts is limited for underserved populations. Our universal, inclusive model is easily adaptable in any community or city, through the transformation of public land into an interactive and engaging experience for members of the community and the surrounding neighborhoods. Sheometry is designed to offer the best DJs and live performers in a multitude of genres including, dance, electronic, fusion, rock and more! Additionally, Sheometry will feature captivating visual art, family-oriented activities, community-based resources, apparel, food trucks and more!

Where and When?

After a 4 year leave due to the world change in 2019, Sheometry returned July 15, 2023, in a new location Spotlite Detroit. The audience increased 30%. Our partner Spotlite Detroit is located at 2905 Beaufait St. corner of Chalavoix near the Heildelburg Project. Our plan is to continue helping with music & arts come alive, enhancing the development of community in and around Detroit's East side.

ENDORSEMENTS / PARTNERS

Sheometry has joined forces with other community based organizations, venues, and industry professionals including 1XRUN, Deep Space Radio, Give A Beat, Red Bull Radio, M!X Bricktown, Spin Inc., Red Bull Radio, FSDY, and We Found Hip Hop.

Together we will renew and revive the corner of Charlevoix and Meldrum into an interactive playground of music and art for the community connectivity.

OUR REACH

Sheometry collectively builds a unique demographic of attendees.

This is because of the inclusive and accessible nature of public music and art, the festival has been able to expand its reach from not only local residents but tourists, artists, and media from around the globe that cross traditional demographic boundaries.

From artists that participate, city residents, musicians, and art fans that connect year-round. This festival will tap into a well-connected, socially and diverse market.

Sheometry attendees will identify with brands associated with this festival.
