Summary

Goal-Driven baseball coach looking to making a difference. A baseball coach looking for a chance to grow, a coach willing to do whatever it takes to become successful. Great business mind that is not afraid of failure or getting their hands dirty to do whatever is asked of him to get the job done. Hands on experience helping with baseball camps at the high school and collegiate levels, building a budget, and coming in under said budget for baseball team. Has great relationships with current and former players. My skills are I am an excellent communicator, dependable and responsible, and my attention to detail is impeccable. I am also very flexible and adaptable in every situation I have been in with the ability to solve problems with great time management. I am a self-motivated 35-year-old father of 2 daughters that has the passion to be a successful baseball coach in a college baseball program.
