

American Legion helps scouts with Arrow of Light

Members of American Legion Post 174 assisted Pack 151, Den 6, on January 9, with Arrow of Light requirements.

The Arrow of Light is a rank and an award, the highest achievement in Cub Scouting. The Post provided information about the history of the U.S. flag and proper display and folding of the U.S. flag.

Legion member Fred Keebler taught the scouts how to fold the flag properly and provided guidance while they practiced folding the flag.

In addition, Post Commander BJ MacMillan covered the rights and duties of U.S. citizens. She also explained the mission of the American Legion and the activities Post 174 conducts to support the community.

Mr. Keebler talked about the importance of volunteering to support your country and community.

Group photo from left: Samuel Banuelos, Marshall Saunders, Fred Keebler, BJ MacMillan, Scott Taylor, Victoria Nolan, Titus Nolan, Herman Bruechner and Case Taylor.