

Finding the Delacombe clinic

You will find us at 14 Smythes Road, Delacombe. Look for the sign out the front.

Parking and arrival

Our clinic looks like a house. It is painted green with black trimmings. We have fourteen carpark spaces behind the clinic plus one disabled parking space. You can also park along the street.

Entrance

Our only entrance is the ramp from the car park. You will see our entry door marked “Reception” at the top of the ramp.

Reception

Let our friendly reception staff know that you have arrived. If there is a fee for your appointment, our reception staff will ask for you to pay it before you go sit in the waiting room.

Waiting area

Feel free to sit, read, puzzle or have a drink while you wait.

Corridor to rooms

During your appointment

Your clinician will meet you and walk you to a comfortable therapy room.
Appointments last approximately 50 minutes.

After your appointment:

At the end of your appointment, your clinician will bring you back to the waiting room.

If you need to book another appointment, please see our friendly reception staff.

They can give you a card that has the details of your next appointment.
