

Richard "Dick"
Caswell
~ 1993 ~

Dick Caswell has become synonymous with amateur baseball in New Rochelle and Westchester County over the past four decades. Dick played baseball in high school, college and the Air Force. Caswell joined the New Rochelle Robins when they organized in 1956 and has been the backbone of the team ever since, eventually becoming General Manager. During his tenure, the Robins won two Westchester Baseball Association titles, and numerous Long Island and Colonial League Championships. With Caswell, the Robins have played in 13 national and Continental Amateur Baseball World Series, culminating in the Continental Amateur Baseball Association Championship in 1990. Dick received a commendation from Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn for his "achievements and dedication to amateur baseball" and many other commendations and awards.

Vincent DePaul
Draddy
~ 1993 ~

Vin Draddy led the 1923 NRHS football team to its first Westchester County Championship, then captained the '24 and '25 teams. He then moved on to quarterback at Manhattan College and was named captain in 1928. Draddy was Chairman of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame for 20 years. He was Chairman of the Manhattan College Board of Trustees and a major benefactor. Draddy Gymnasium at Manhattan is named for his family.

Draddy was a founder of the Westchester Golf Classic, serving as Chairman. He was inducted into the Westchester Sports Hall of Fame in 1980 and presented with the National Football Foundation Gold Medal in 1978.

Coach Samuel
Giangreco
~ 1993 ~

Sam has brought great distinction to New Rochelle as an internationally respected sports official. At NRHS he lettered in basketball, baseball and football, and was starting tackle on the national champion football teams of the mid-twenties. After playing football at Manhattan he returned to New Rochelle as a physical education teacher, football and baseball coach. The Gym at Albert Leonard Middle School is Named for Him.

As a sports official he became a recognized A.A.U. Field Chief, Starter, and Judge, working the Melrose Games, Pan Am Games and Penn Relays. He was also selected as a U.S. Olympic Field Judge. Sam was a leading NFL official for fifteen years, including All-Star and League Championship game assignments.
