While at NRHS Randy excelled on the football field and wrestling mats. He was selected to All-County honors in wrestling and was a winner of the prestigious Con Edison Award. His wrestling skills brought him to the Eastern AAU Championships and placed him as a finalist for the 1964 Olympic Team.

His skills as an athlete helped him in coaching, leading to championship programs at Mt. Vernon High School, New Rochelle High School and Woodlands High School. He was selected as Wrestling Coach of the Year at both Woodlands High School and Mt. Vernon High School. Randy was given the highest honor in the wrestling field by being named to the Section One Tri-County Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Scoop's interest in boxing began at age 12 when he began to participate in many boxing bouts throughout Westchester County. At age 18 Scoop reached the quarter finals of the Golden Gloves tourney. He won the Victory Gloves tourney held at Westchester County Center by beating some of the best boxers in the country.

Al then became a fight trainer and manager, handling some of the best fighters in the tri-state area. Scoop organized a veterans boxing group, Ring 30, in Westchester County, joining the parent group known as the National VBA. The success of the national group helped Ring 30 become a international project, known as International Veteran Boxers Association. Scoop served as President of the IVBA for over 30 years.
