

Tom Hocter
~ 1999 ~

Thomas began writing for the school newsletter "Purple & White" and is the author of the school song "Lets Cheer." He also performed with the drama club, played varsity basketball and served as manager of the NRHS Crew. He attended Cathedral College and the Columbia University School of Journalism. He worked for the Standard Star and had his own column within two years. He served as Sports Editor and reported for 10 years as "The Stroller."

Tom has served as City Historian for more than 35 years. He has become the "walking encyclopedia" for New Rochelle sports, politics and history.

David B. Kutner
~ 1999 ~

David was one of the premiere athletes to wear the famous purple and white uniform. He starred on the basketball, baseball, football, and track and field teams. He set the County record in the shot put and established a new New York State record in the running broad jump with a leap of 21' 5 1/2". He also captured gold medals while attending NYU and participated in the Middle Atlantic States meet.

He was the recipient of the De Rochemont Efficiency Cup in recognition of his classroom academics and his proficiency in sports. David Kutner has truly earned his place in the New Rochelle Sports Hall of Fame.