JUNIOR RANGE SAFETY OFFICER PROGRAM

Objective:

- To ensure the highest possible standard of general range safety.
- To encourage youth members to take responsibility for range safety.
- To encourage youth members to become certified Range Safety Officers once they are eighteen.

Target Audience:

Youth aged 14 – 17 who are active in the shooting sports.

Premise:
Youth who are actively involved with shooting clubs, can register and take the AFSS Range Safety Officer course and on successful completion be qualified to assist an AFSS certified Range Safety Officer on the range.

Course cost:

Junior RSO applicants will pay $100.00 to take the Range Safety Officer course. They will also be required to provide a copy of their Junior Pal. However, as a junior RSO they will not be required to recertify each year.

Successful candidates will receive:

- a Junior RSO card
- a tracking sheet

Within three months of a junior RSO turning eighteen, a Junior RSO can submit their tracking sheet and their RPAL to the AFSS and provided they have assisted on the range, their status will be changed from RSO Junior to certified RSO. This certification will be for one year, at which time they will be required to recertify to maintain their credentials.

Junior RSOs will never be allowed to run the range by themselves, they must always be supervised by an AFSS certified Range Safety Officer.

Created December 8th, 2025
