"INSPIRING YOUTH TO REACH THEIR HIGHEST POTENTIAL IS MY GREATEST PASSION."

Erica Austin is a powerhouse public speaker with a leading and recognized philosophy of building up our youth to harness their power and design fulfilling, healthy, and positive lives for themselves every day. Having published her first book at the age of nine, Erica Austin has dedicated her life to youth development through empowerment and faith. Her award-winning book, "What Every Child Should Know About Prayer: From a Child's Point of View," was the beginning of a legacy to motivate and empower youth with practical self-empowerment strategies through education, building on life, and leadership skills.

Speaking Topics

- The Importance of Education
- Literacy Matters
- Leadership Skills
- Youth Empowerment

As a community-focused advocate and speaker, Erica's focus is on self-empowerment through literacy and the development of life and leadership skills.

Young women have a book dedicated to a set of foundational principles, including self-awareness, confidence, voice, and realizing your vision. Erica Austin provides guidance and support for the four guiding principles in great detail and delves into the more profound subject matter, influencing young women's development, including faith and balance and happiness, and finding your purpose.
