ANGLICAN DIOCESE OF SC

JULY 2024

De Colores to the Anglican 4th Day Cursillo Family!

What an honor it is to get to serve as the Lay Rector of Cursillo #194! God has provided a great Team who love the Lord and are ready to share that love with the Participants God has selected to be with us in July.

Our weekend Scripture is Isaiah 43:2 - "When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you." I remember singing this song all through my teenage years and beyond at Happening and Vocare. We all go through periods of trials and God was always with us. Whether that be as a diocese or in our personal lives, He never leaves us.

Our Saint for the weekend is Saint Jude. We don't know a whole lot about Jude, as he was only mentioned briefly in the New Testament. Saint Jude, also known as Saint Jude Thaddeus, is known and loved throughout the world as the Patron Saint of Hopeless Causes. He was one of the twelve Apostles and a brother of Jesus. He courageously preached the Gospel, often in the most difficult circumstances. I have always felt a connection with St. Jude ever since my school days, as we did fundraising for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Tennessee.

I am very thankful for all that the Cursillo community is already doing to support Cursillo #194. Thank you for the Palanca and prayer chain links you are sending. They will be a blessing to everyone. Thank you also for praying for us.

Only the Team will be doing Wake-up on Sunday morning. This will give everyone some much needed extra sleep. We do hope you will join us for the Clausura in the Chapel of the Palms at 2:30 PM on July 14th to celebrate as the Participants enter their Fourth Day. Please continue to pray for the Team and the Participants. Ultreya!

God Bless,
Emily Henderson
Lay Rector, Cursillo #194

FROM THE BISHOP'S CLERGY REPRESENTATIVE Father Bill Oldland

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Cursillo #194 is less than three weeks away. We are excited to have twenty participants registered for the weekend. Please be sure to send palanca for them. I still remember how the palanca I received affected me. To know that so many people were praying for me whom I had never met touched me deeply. It helped me understand the incredible love of God as expressed by the people of God for others.

Please pray for the team and participants to have an incredible weekend and for the Holy Spirit to touch each one of us in a special way. While the palanca and preparations are so important, the most effective gift that we have been given by God is prayer. We covet your prayers for us daily.

When I think of all of the work that has been accomplished by Emily, the team, and the various ultreyas to prepare for this weekend, I am reminded of Philippians 4:13, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

May God bless you and keep you!

Your brother in Christ,
Father Bill Oldland

FROM THE DIOCESAN LAY COORDINATOR

Jim Huntley

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With great gladness and praise to our Father in heaven we have 20 Cursillistas for Cursillo #194.

Thank you to all who have talked to their clergy and have sponsored the folks who will be making their Cursillo. Please pray that this weekend will set them on a deeper faith journey with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Our Lay Rector Emily Henderson and her team have been preparing to host the new Cursillistas for their weekend. Please start writing your Palanca to the participants (2) and team (1) and remember prayer is the best Palanca. I encourage everyone to come to the Clausura which will be at the Chapel of the Palms for this weekend. Remember how you felt when you attended your weekend and the joy that you felt when you walked through the door to see your brothers and sisters there to welcome you to the 4th day? Let's give them the same blessing. Try to be there by 2:30 on the 14th.

The Ultreya for this weekend will be held in Sumter at Church of the Holy Comforter on July 27th. I hope that everyone can attend and continue to make the participants feel blessed to be welcomed to the Cursillo family.

If you have not done so already please consider making a donation to the Joy of Giving (JOG) so that everyone can attend a Cursillo weekend and not have to worry about finances. Be in prayer if you have a participant in mind for a future weekend. You can get application from our Registrar Jim Gonnella jimginse@aol.com. We look forward to seeing everyone on the 14th! Remember to wear your crosses!

Ultreya!
Jim Huntley
