DEACON VISITS

RHPC Deacons and Elders: Kevin Fritz and I were blessed to have the opportunity to serve communion outreach to Joanne Boback and Janet LaFrankie at Grandview Estates after worship this morning. All felt the amazing companionship of God shining down on us with this brilliant summer-strength sun today! We served communion outdoors on their patio

The Survivor's Lunch

The Survivors met on October 14 at Tillie's in McKeesport. We had so many in attendance that we couldn't all sit together! That's a good problem to have. Join us next month on Tuesday, November 11 at 1PM at Randall's in Perryopolis Let Janice Sherman know if you will be joining the group. If you don't want to drive yourself, meet at the church for a ride. Leave room for their homemade dessert!

GAME NIGHT AT ROUND HILL

The second Friday of the month at 6:00 pm is game night or it should be called a night of fellowship, fun and much laughter. A variety of games are available and new ones are always welcomed. An example of games that have been played are UNO, Sequence, Chronology and Cornhole (weather/daylight determines). So if your favorite game is different, bring it and people will be willing to learn something new.

Pizza, snacks and soft drinks are shared prior to game playing and this is a great time for fellowship with church members or their guests. Come out and give it a go and if you like games, you will keep the second Friday open for Game Night on your calendar.

NEXT GAME NIGHT IS FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14.

Chair Yoga

The Chair Yoga class was Thursday October 22 at 6 PM AND taught by Julie Larcinese. It was a good relaxing class. Watch the Sunday Bulletin for future dates.

Session Notes

Reported by Bob Leggett

On Monday, October 13th Session met and received the usual reports. They finalized their approval of the Church Information Form for the Pastoral Search Committee. The CIF is the first major step in the search process. It was noted that the new camera is in use for streaming the worship services. Also if you have an article for the Around the Hill Newsletter, please submit it to Bonnie Craig by the deadline noted on the calendar each month.

The various committees reported their previous and upcoming activities, some of which will be in various items in the ATH newsletter or the bulletin. If you have any concerns or questions, you are encouraged to speak with any member of Session.

The next meeting will be Monday, November 10th

BREAKFAST ANYONE?

Kevin Fritz and Julius Simon coordinated our September 28 before worship breakfast fellowship . The breakfast was well received and will be continued. The October 26 breakfast was biscuits, sausage, breakfast casserole and fruit.

The November 30 breakfast will be coordinated by Tanya Jackson. There will not be a December breakfast because a Pot Luck Luncheon is scheduled for December. Data to be announced later.

If anyone wants to coordinate a future breakfast, let Gayle or Lisa know.

If anyone has ideas for the Fellowship Team to try, please let us know.

Rev. Dan Muttart

Rev. Dr. Dan Muttart recently retired after serving for almost 22 years in ordained ministry, 13 of those in the EPC. He was born and raised in Toronto Ontario Canada but emigrated permanently to the United States in 1986, becoming a citizen in 1992. He has served churches in Monroeville, Richland Township, Natrona Heights and Pulaski and has been known for making biblical truths from God's inerrant word real and practical for people's lives. Since pastors never really retire, he has found a new home for his messages on Substack:

dancingwithjesustoday.substack.com. After being widowed twice, he married his soulmate Joanna on July 13, 2024. They reside in Finleyville, close to family and the expected birth in January of their first grandchild.

Round Hill Memories

Submitted by Bob Leggett

Narrative of the Whisky Insurrection

Being a Setting Forth of the Memoirs Of the Late David Froman, Esquire

by RICHARD T. WILEY, Litt, D.

Excerpts from Chapter 12: THE SACRAMENT
AT ROUND HILL.

The service was prolonged until late in the afternoon, and many who had come from a distance began to make preparations for departing. Some were going off on foot, some disengaging the bridles of their horses from branches of near by trees, some already mounted, when Mr. Smith raised his voice until it rang out in every part of the grounds, and said: "One word to those who are now retiring, and who cannot remain longer with us. We are told that when this supper was celebrated for the first time none retired from the place until all was over, but Judas. If there be any Judases here, let them go! But let them remember that what they have heard and seen here to-day will follow them to their homes and to hell, if they go there! " The effect was like an electric shock, and nearly all returned and remained until the benediction was pronounced.

This sacramental service proved the beginning of a great revival which continued even during the busy time of the harvest, and many professed conversion whose after lives attested the thoroughness of the work wrought in them. I wonder why my great church in these days has so largely passed this work of sturdy evangelism over to the more aggressive denominations, when it was planted in this western country amid such scenes as that which has just been described.

Annual Survivors Christmas Luncheon

Due to restaurant availability, the date has changed for our annual Survivors Christmas Luncheon. Our luncheon will be Tuesday, December 16, 2025, at the Carriage Inn. Festivities begin at 1:00 PM. and we won't be kicked out until 3:30PM! We will order off the menu and each is responsible for their own bill. If you would like to participate, we will have a gift exchange game, with a value of between $5-10. This is not mandatory. There will be some games and some Christmas carols.

This would be a wonderful opportunity for you to join us if you haven't come yet! As always let Janice Sherman know that you will join us or need a ride.
