DEVON'S BISHOPS PAY TRIBUTE TO PRINCE PHILIP AS CHURCHES REMEMBER HIM

Churches across Devon have been marking the death of the Duke of Edinburgh by flying their flags at half-mast.

Many of them also tolled a muffled bell 99 times at noon on Saturday, one ring for every year of the Duke's life.

Churches will also be open during the national period of mourning for people to pray or light a candle and lay floral tributes.

A number of special commemorative services are also planned.

The Bishop of Exeter, the Rt Rev'd Robert Atwell, said "The death of the Duke of Edinburgh is a personal loss for Her Majesty the Queen and their family and a great loss for our nation.

"Prince Philip has been at the Queen's side throughout her reign and we honour his constancy and service."

The Bishop of Crediton, the Rt Rev'd Jackie Searle, paid tribute to his role creating the Duke of Edinburgh Award, "Amongst his many achievements what stands out for me is the Duke of Edinburgh Award scheme.

"It was significant for both of my children and many of their friends, and it has provided opportunity and challenge for young people everywhere, changing lives for the good. It will be a long-lasting and fitting legacy.

“My deepest sympathy and prayers are with her Majesty the Queen and the Royal Family as they mourn their loss and ours.”

“There was a lot of behind the scenes good things that he did that he didn’t want any recognition for.

“He didn’t like to wear his heart on his sleeve.”

The Church of England has opened an online book of condolence for people to sign as an alternative to physical books of condolence in churches and other public buildings, due to coronavirus restrictions.

Churches which decide to have a commemorative display to remember the Duke of Edinburgh will also be able to display a QR code so people can scan it with their phones to contribute to the online book.

The Duke of Edinburgh first met the Queen while he was a naval cadet at Britannia Royal Naval College in Dartmouth.

The area bishop, the Rt Rev’d Nick McKinnel, Bishop of Plymouth, recalled the time he met Prince Philip at a black tie dinner in Plymouth: “I had my clerical collar on and he said to me, ‘I suppose you are going to be saying grace?’ I said I was and he said ‘I hope it’s a proper grace, I don’t like those made up ones.’ Fortunately I had the grace of Sir Francis Drake already prepared!” Bishop Nick added “There was a lot of behind the scenes good things that he did that he didn’t want any recognition for.

Prince Philip is also being mourned by church members across Devon. Annie Jeffries, who as Chair of the House of Laity, represents lay people in the diocese, said “On behalf of all of lay people across the Diocese of Exeter, I would like to extend our deepest sorrow at the news, that HRH Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh had died. “He was an exceptional man who will be always remembered for his amazing legacy and service to the Queen and this country.”

The commemorative service for Torbay will be held at St Paul’s church, Paignton, at 10am on Thursday 15 April and the Bishop of Crediton will be preaching.

There will also be a service at St Andrew’s, the minster church of Plymouth, led by the Bishop of Plymouth at 3pm on Thursday.

The Bishop of Exeter will be leading Devon County’s commemorative service at Exeter Cathedral on the same day at 4.30pm.

The services are not open to the public because of Covid restrictions but all three of them will be livestreamed so people can still participate.

COLLECT

Risen Christ,
you filled your disciples with boldness and fresh hope: strengthen us to proclaim your risen life and fill us with your peace,
to the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

POST-COMMUNION

Living God,
your Son made himself known to his disciples
in the breaking of bread:
open the eyes of our faith,
that we may see him in all his redeeming work;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Amen.

Acts: 3: 12-19

¹²When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, 'You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk?' ¹³The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. ¹⁴But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, ¹⁵and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. ¹⁶And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you. ¹⁷'And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. ¹⁸In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. ¹⁹Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out.

Luke 24: 36b-48Jesus Appears to His Disciples

³⁶ While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' ³⁷They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. ³⁸He said to them, 'Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts?' ³⁹Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.' ⁴⁰And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. ⁴¹While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' ⁴²They gave him a piece of broiled fish, ⁴³and he took it and ate in their presence. ⁴⁴ Then he said to them, 'These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.' ⁴⁵Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, ⁴⁶and he said to them, 'Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸You are witnesses of these things.
