Chorus:

*All good gifts around us
Are sent from heaven above,
Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord
For all His love.*

There's little doubt that we've all sung the words of this chorus at some time in our lives - and most likely, at this time of year. It is from the classic harvest hymn 'We Plough the Fields and Scatter', written in 1867. The original version, based on a Psalm, was originally written in German and later translated into English by a Rector's daughter. Her translation was quite 'loose' and since then the words have been tweaked again so that it could better serve as a harvest hymn. For over 100 years, children across the land have been singing this song at harvest festivals in schools and churches. It is such a well known hymn that it has even inspired a parody by John Betjemen which highlighted the pitfalls of modern farming methods in 1969. There's also another, modernised version which begins with the line: We plough the fields with tractors...

October is the usual time in the UK for us to celebrate the harvest with special services in churches, harvest suppers and often a barn dance or two. 'Harvest' in other countries is celebrated at different times of year depending on the climate and the food produced locally.

In Nigeria, the Yam Harvests are celebrated in August with dancing and parties which bring the whole community together.

In Indonesia, the rice harvest is a time for celebration and thankfulness, with dollies being made out of the rice stalks, and simple temple erected in the rice fields.

Across the Atlantic, in Argentina, there are parades and festivals to celebrate the grape harvest with musicians, food and entertainers.

Across the globe and in their own unique ways, people love to celebrate and give thanks for food.

As well as servicing the vital purpose of keeping us alive, food has the ability to bring together families and communities and forms a central part of our social lives.

Church News & Events

Over the coming weeks, there will be many chances to thank God for the harvest this year, to give thanks for the temperate climate, for the dedication of the farmers and for all those involved in the food industry. Some plans are still 'pared down' because of Covid, but others are going ahead - such as the Ashburton Methodists 'Prepare and Share' service where a meal is prepared as part of the service, and the more traditional harvest services in the Anglican churches.

However you choose to celebrate this harvest season, do it in the knowledge that you are joining in with people all over world to say 'thank you', in a multitude of ways, for what God has provided.

As for 'We Plough the fields and scatter'.... Well, this seems to be a 'marmite' kind of a song - you either love it or hate it, there's no in between! For those of you in the latter category, here is a contemporary Harvest Hymn, set to a well loved tune:

Enjoy!

Harvest Festival

Harvest Festival will be celebrated at Holne at 5pm Sunday 10th October preceded by a tea and cakes commencing at 4pm. This will be the first major celebration in the Church calendar since lockdown restrictions were removed, so it would be lovely to see the church full for the occasion. Harvest Festival is the time to celebrate and thank our farming neighbours in any way we can.

Of course, it is also about celebrating God's creation which we can easily take for granted. As we approach the time of the COP26 meeting in Glasgow, we can also reflect on the damage we have done to the world and how we can help to mitigate it. It is not just a task for governments to tackle, but something where individuals can make a difference.

Any donations of fresh, tinned or dried produce for the service will be welcome. Fresh produce will be donated to the Community Shop and dried or tinned goods will go to the foodbank. So even if you cannot attend the service, please use the opportunity to support others with your gifts. We all have something to be thankful for.

We live in a farming community and many of us know first-hand of the pressures and challenges that face farmers in this uncertain world. All financial donations

St. Raphael, Huccaby

Postbridge to Huccaby Pilgrimage

On Sunday 29th August, our first Christian Mission Community pilgrimage took place starting at St. Gabriel's, Postbridge and ending at St. Raphael's, Huccaby. The event had a two-fold purpose – to bring people back together again after so much time apart and to launch the Visitors to Pilgrims initiative.

The weather was ideal and 37 adults, 3 children and 2 dogs enjoyed either the whole of the pilgrimage or joined in at different points. Seven churches from our Mission Community were represented although sadly, none of our Methodist friends were free to join us on this occasion.

We stopped for a picnic lunch by the standing stone near Laughter Tor before completing the journey with a short service commemorating John Bunyan, the author of Pilgrim's Progress, followed by a cream tea. We were joined by others who were unable to take part in the pilgrimage but who wanted to share in the event. It was a joyous occasion and despite a short stretch of challenging terrain towards Huccaby Tor, everyone had a good time.

The Visitors to Pilgrim project is aimed at anyone who enjoys walking on Dartmoor or visiting its churches and is designed to encourage them to encounter God in some way by engaging in an activity in the church. Brochures containing walking routes and information about the churches and chapels in our Mission Community are being produced. More information can be found on the website www.pilgrimtrails.co.uk. Or contact the Deputy Churchwarden, Tony Parker.

Harvest Festival

We have all missed celebrating harvest last year, so we are delighted that this year's service will take place at 3pm on 17th October at St. Raphael's. As usual we will be pleased to receive donations of fresh, tinned or dried produce for the service. Fresh food can be taken away for a donation and the dried or tinned goods will go to the foodbank. Any money raised at the service will go to the Farming Community Network Charity. The service will be followed by a traditional St. Raphael's cream tea! We hope to see you there.

Pottery Classes with Kate Lyons-Miller

I have recently been able to re-start my pottery classes at Holwell Studio, Widecombe in the Moor. Very small groups of 2/3, masks are worn and we do all we can to be Covid aware.

The classes are informal and friendly, handbuilding, but a kick wheel is available. Suitable for all ages and abilities, wheelchair friendly, except perhaps for access to the compost loo. I encourage experimentation, the only limits are the kiln sizes.

The sessions run on Thursday, Friday and Saturdays, 10-12.30, or 2.00-5.00, and cost £20.00, which includes first firing and basic materials, and of course, tea/coffee and biscuits, potters essentials. There is more information on my website, www.katelyonsmiller.com

Leusdon Memorial Hall

The Hall is now open and we are slowly getting back to normal. We started with the Dog Show and, as a result of the enthusiasm shown by competitors, we are hoping to make this an annual event taking place in August.

We had our first coffee morning on 1st September. It was very well attended, it appeared that attendees were pleased to be able to meet up with friends again and enjoy time together. As a result we raised over £200.00 for hall funds. The coffee mornings will continue on the first Wednesday of each month along similar lines to the first one.

Hiring out of four tables per month at £5.00 each for anyone to sell anything they wish (within reason). One of these will be reserved for bric-a-brac. A book and jigsaw swapping facility with a 10p administration charge via an honesty box. The coffee/tea, cakes and the raffle will continue. The entry fee will be £2.00 with raffle tickets on sale.

On Saturday 28th August we hosted refreshments in the hall following the installation of the memorial seat on the green outside the hall. Thanks to the History Group, Geoffrey Fenton and Patrick Simpson for arranging this.

By the time you read this the Whist Drives will have started again. They are preceded by a soup and roll or pasty lunch at 1.00pm for any anyone wishing to partake. Further Whist Drives will be held on the 18th October, 15th November and 13th December all starting at 2.00pm. The cost for Lunch and Whist will be £5.00. Whist only £3.00 which will include half time refreshments and a draw.

On the Friday 22nd October we will be holding a Family Bingo evening, eyes down at 7.00pm. The cost is £1.50 per book of eight games including refreshments. You can find further details on our facebook page nearer the time.

We look forward to seeing you at some or all of the above events.

An early date for your diary, Leusdon Memorial Hall is celebrating its centenary in October 2023, please put the date in your diary.

Should you wish to book the Hall it will be available for hire from 1st August at £10.00 per hour, there are special rates for regular users. Further details can be obtained by contacting our booking secretary:

"Getting the Sack"

Listening to Rodney Cruze talking about sack bags at the recent Parish Field open day, prompted me to think about the term "Getting the Sack" when a person is dismissed from their employment.

The term can be found in use in the Medieval French and Dutch languages and was taken into common usage in our language around two or three hundred years ago.

It is commonly believed to be describing a circumstance where an itinerate workman has been dismissed where his work had been unsatisfactory, and he was provided with a sack to collect and take away his tools.

It is probable that the "sack" of the Middle Ages was always figurative, that it alluded to the ancient Roman punishment of putting a condemned person into a sack and drowning him in the River Tiber. That form of punishment was common throughout Europe in the Middle Ages.

Bible Study Group

We meet every Thursday at 7pm at Higher Foxworthy for Bible Study. Everyone is very welcome to join but please ring Serena on 07789 762061 so we know the numbers. We are a small friendly group seeking to enrich our knowledge of God through His word in the Bible.

We have decided not to re-start these for the moment as the chapel is small and there is little air circulation possible to make it safe.

Cook Wanted

We are seeking a cook who is keen to work flexible hours and deliver nutritious, home style dishes for young people and the occasional event. Must be able to work weekends and be keen to explain the wholesomeness of good food, encouraging young people to cook and eat healthily.

Cleaners Wanted

We are still looking for additional cleaners to help with visiting groups. Candidates must have transport, be willing to work flexible hours and pay attention to detail.

News from the East Shallowford Trust

Having somewhat lumbered exhaustively through a hectic schedule of visitors, with piles of washing, cleaning, washing, more dust collection, bleaching, washing and ironing..... the joy of the new term hit us. And did it hit us hard

The e-mails flew, the phone kept ringing and people driving up and down the road, piling into the Ark for yet another meeting. We are getting there! We are moving forward! However, 'In what direction?' you might ask? I am now officially allowed to inform everyone that we were granted, by some small miracle (and a lot of hard work from Butterfly Conservation, the Hill Farm Project and Will), a grant from the Heritage Lottery for 'Green Recovery'. This means we will be advertising for a Conservation Officer to work with our groups, developing a wide ranging conservation programme with strong elements of local seed collection, propagation and planting. For this particular grant the emphasis is on the devil's bit scabious, which for those of us who walked the Spitchwick Perambulation last September, covers many areas of rhos pasture where this magical plant tenaciously grows.

Rhos pasture? Pronounced by most people in the meetings as 'rose pasture,' a quick search reveals: 'Rhôs pastures are enclosed species-rich purple moor-grass and rush pastures. On Dartmoor they are found in valley systems away from the open moor, usually in a mosaic together with wet woodland, other species-rich grasslands and oakwood. Dartmoor has 1,200 hectares of this habitat, representing 20% of the English resource.' My son and I ventured to Shetland at the end of August and spotted huge swathes of devil's-bit scabious, but sadly not many of the Marsh Fritillary Butterflies for which this grant has been awarded, as we aim to facilitate it's breeding and encourage it to thrive.

We were talking about it with one of our truculent 16 year olds at a particularly bad moment when hidden sweets were being removed. 'Who cares about a butterfly. We all die anyway.' So, in my attempt to bring this back to some reality, I asked if they have seen 'Hitch Hikers Guide to the Galaxy?' 'Yes' – eyebrows raised up and a small hint of interest. 'Well, you remember the extra terrestrials decided to blast Earth out of existence because we were in the way of an intergalactic highway?' 'Yea', 'Well, that is you talking to the butterfly!' No major response, but some grunt!

Planting is never going to be the average teenager's idea of a brilliant activity. However, in a week's activities, an hour or so in the poly tunnel, pressing soil around the roots of a plant plug, a small whip pressed into the earth, pulling up a fresh carrot and smelling that wonderful tingle of wafting dampness when potatoes are yanked out of rich soil ..... Those moments are seared onto the inside of memories and will trigger something real and positive in the future. More to the point, when 'What can we do about Climate Change' questions are asked, some practical answers will be given. Answers where our groups will have planted trees, restored heavy rocks from fallen walls, collected seeds from flowers which will have names and not just be things to fling at each other. Respect, the vast interweaving of humanity in our complex natural world..... we get there in the end one way or another.

This grant will also enable us rebuild the Corner Barn following the dismantling of the old one about five years ago. As our general youth have little tolerance to farm bugs and diseases, we have to take great care to separate the accommodation area from farm areas. My grandfather would turn in his grave! As a pharmacist he recognised the children who grew up indoors with no exposure to soil and animal bugs. It rendered their immune systems more vulnerable and they were ever in his shop as older youth with snively noses and poor health. There is plenty of literature on the relationship between isolated, super clean children and high levels of leukemia. However, I digress..... the issue is re-centring our farm activities towards the existing Animal Barn, so we have a 'safe' area with some more dry outdoor space. We have three more farm barns to build and then we are done with building (whooopeee)!! These Barns will enable us to store straw, house a few more animals, work under cover but outside when it's pouring with rain, create an accessible outdoor loo and handwashing facilities and generally provide a space for working with animals, woodwork, willow and..... So the list goes on. The area is already used as farm space – it just needs a few more hit and miss boarded walls and a roof on our poor long suffering shippen, that leaks like a sieve and is now stuffed with all our Christmas materials for the Nativity (which reminds me..... we hope to hold one again this year if anyone is interested!!). Our aim is to finish building by April!! Can we do it? Can we raise the funds, gain the materials (no joke) and then concentrate on the people, the farm activities and our wildlife? We love a challenge – but can we succeed this time?

This month we're pleased to announce some new members joining us in the Link Team:

Rachel has been working away for some weeks now contacting advertisers, asking them how things are going, and sending out invoices for those placing ads. The good news is that money is now coming in again after our Covid hiatus, and for the time being, thanks to Rachel's work, the financial future of the Link looks secure.

Also we have three new editors in training who are bravely tackling Adobe Indesign and getting ready to take it on from our existing editor, Peter, who has single-handedly been producing the Link for several years. Our new editors are Richard and Suzy from Holne and Marilyn from Huccaby. They have a hard act to follow, and we are very grateful they have stepped up!

There is still role we are hoping to fill - that of "Distribution Manager". This is a job that takes about four hours a month and mostly is just a matter of driving round in a loop covering Postbridge, Huccaby, Holne, Leusdon, Buckland, Sherril and Widecombe, dropping off the relevant number of copies as you go, and getting to know where the copies are currently delivered, and then working out how to fill the gaps in our coverage.

The Link is truly a Community Magazine completely run by volunteers, using a professional printer – "Parish Magazine Printing" of Bude. We are very proud of it! Thank you to everyone who sends in copy, or advertises, or helps with production and distribution.

From all of us at the Link
