

The Ten Planks of Karl Marx's Communist Manifesto (and How Statists Implement Them)

1. Abolition of private property rights (via high property taxes, restrictive zoning laws, "fair housing" edicts, environmental and "wetlands" regulations, UN Agenda 21, etc.)
2. Institution of a heavily graduated income tax (by calling it "taxing the rich")
3. Abolition of all rights of inheritance (through a confiscatory estate tax on "the rich")
4. Confiscation of the property of enemies of the state (through lawless application of asset forfeiture and eminent domain)
5. Centralization of credit into the hands of the state (Federal Reserve, Federal Trade Commission, TARP, etc.)
6. Centralization of the means of communication and transportation into the hands of the state (FCC, DOT, FEMA, etc.).
7. Consolidation and subjugation of all major industries to central government control (FDA, EPA, OSHA, ICC, NLRB, EEOC, etc.)
8. Mandatory labor union membership (public-sector unions, unionization of 21-million Obamacare health care workers, automatic withholding of forced union dues, "card check," etc.)
9. Equitable redistribution of all wealth (TANF, SSI, EITC, SNAP, etc.)
10. Free public education (and food and health care and cell phones and Internet access, etc.)
