About the Judge: Carolyn Albracht

Carolyn Albracht has been a visual art educator for twenty-five years in both formal and informal capacities. Her formal education includes a B.A. in Studio Art and Psychology, an M.A. in Museum Studies, a teaching endorsement in K-12 Art Education, and a Ph.D. in Education Studies. She is currently Professor of Art Education in the department of Art and Design at Wayne State College, as well as owner and director of Blue Cat Gallery & Studio in downtown Wayne, NE. She believes the arts and the capacity for creativity are innately human and strives to make the arts as accessible as possible to all in her corner of the world.

Submission and Delivery of Artwork

- Fill out the submission form and email to bluecat.gallery.studio@gmail.com by Saturday, June 28th. Be sure to include size of each artwork to allow us to plan for sufficient exhibit space.
- Artwork must be delivered to Blue Cat Gallery & Studio on Monday, July 7th, between 10am and 12pm. It must be ready to hang (matted or framed and wired on the back). If the delivery window poses a conflict, please contact us to make other arrangements: 402-454-5144.

Liability

- Artist's work will be displayed in the gallery space at the artist's and their guardian/parent's own risk. Blue Cat Gallery & Studio does not carry insurance to cover the replacement of damaged or destroyed work. Artists should carry their own insurance if this is a concern.
- Blue Cat Gallery & Studio staff will take every reasonable precaution to ensure that work displayed in the gallery is safeguarded from damage and destruction.

Agreement

- Submission of work constitutes an agreement to the conditions set forth and acceptance that the decisions of the judge are final. Blue Cat Gallery & Studio may photograph and reproduce submitted work for promotional purposes. Artist and their parent/guardian may not withdraw entries before the close of the exhibition on August 16. Blue Cat Gallery & Studio retain the right to reject work that does not fit the theme or is unsuitable for any reason they deem.

Instructions for Submission
