

Day of Judgement

FILL IN THE BLANKS FROM THE WORDS IN THE BOX AND COLOUR IN THE SHEET

As muslims, we believe in the Day of Judgement.

In Arabic it is known as _____

On the Day of Judgement Allah will bring everyone back to _____.

This will be the day when Allah will decide if a person was _____ or _____.

Good people will go to _____ and bad people will go to _____.

People who will go to Jannah will be very happy and will get everything they want. The people that go to Jahannam will be punished.

If _____ forgives the bad people they can be saved from Jahannam.

We should be good in this world if we want to go to Jannah. If we do bad _____, we must ask for _____. We must believe in Allah, his books, the angels, belief in his messengers, believe in the day of judgement and believe that all good and bad comes from Allah.

On some more paper can you draw what you think Jannah and Jahannam would look like?

jahannam	deeds	Day of Judgement
jannah	Life	forgiveness
Allah	good	bad

Belief in Allah's Messengers

Allah sent some good people as messengers to spread the word of Allah. They were known as prophets. The last and final prophet was Prophet Muhammad. Allah gave the Quran to Prophet Muhammad to teach people about Allah and what is good and bad.

When we speak about the Prophets we should say 'peace be upon him'.

Belief that all good and bad comes from Allah

Allah knows everything that is going to happen to us and nothing can happen without Allah's permission. Sometimes we may not understand why bad things happen, but Allah knows why and when we look back, we realise there was a reason behind it. It is ok to feel sad if something bad happens to us. Our belief in Allah is what keeps us going and makes us good Muslims.
