Our September 11th Meeting will feature guest speaker...

Christine Cribb

Christine Cribb is a speaker, author, and leadership consultant with a gift for igniting momentum and shifting the room with her trademark energy and authenticity. In March she received her Executive Presence Certification from Cornell University. She is the founder of Christine Cribb & Company, she helps leaders, nonprofits, and entrepreneurs stop chasing and start attracting—people, opportunities, and impact.

With decades of experience in Chamber of Commerce leadership, Christine knows firsthand what it takes to build thriving organizations from the inside out. She is the author of Attract Don't Recruit launching in September and through her workshops, coaching, and keynotes, she blends humor, strategy, and heart to empower others to lead with purpose, create stronger connections, and build cultures where people want to belong.

Beyond the stage and boardroom, Christine's proudest role is being mom to three incredible children and Grams to three perfect grandbabies who keep her grounded, grateful, and always inspired.
