Holidays

October 10, 2022, is Columbus Day, the only federal holiday in October. But other holidays include religious observances and cultural celebrations: President Franklin Delano Roosevelt designated Columbus Day a national holiday in 1934.

The arrival of explorer Christopher Columbus in 1492 marks the beginning of recorded history of the discovery of the New World of the Americas on board his ship Santa Maria. This opened relations between the Americas and the rest of the world. Since the 1990's, some states feel Columbus Day should be renamed with Indigenous Peoples Day---a holiday meant to honor the culture and history of people living in the Americas both before and after Columbus' arrival.

Yom
Kippur
DAY OF ATONEMENT

The beginning of October is Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement), the holiest day in Judaism and Samaritanism. It is the most important Jewish holiday that includes a fast and special religious service.
