Hungary-living traditions, colorful history & culture

Budapest

The capital of Hungary is a beautiful historical city situated along the River Danube. It is called the 'Pearl of the Danube'

Budapest

The richly decorated buildings of Budapest are the masterpieces of Hungarian architecture.

Interesting facts about Hungary

Hungary is famous for its wines. We have got 22 wine regions. Tokaji Aszu and Eger Bull's Blood are the most well known.

Goulash is a soup or stew of meat, noodles and vegetables (especially potato), seasoned with paprika and other spices. It's best when made in a cauldron over the open fire.

Hungary is home to Central Europe's largest fresh water lake

Balaton

The world's second-largest thermal lake

Heviz

The largest grassland in Europe

Hortobagy

In Hungary you can find hundreds of therapeutic mineral springs gush up from the depths.

Felsotarkany is located in Northern Hungary, 6 kilometres far from Eger city.

Eger

is the most significant tourist centre in the region.

Eger

It is a lovely Baroque jewel-box and it is famous for its centuries-old architectural heritage, the ecclesiastical treasures, the wine culture, the thermal baths and numerous cultural events.

Felsőtárkány

is called 'The Gate of the Bükk Mountains'
The Bükk encircle our village like a wreath.

Bükk National Park is the first highland national park of Hungary. The manifold carst forms, caves, canyons, striking cliffs of Bükk Mountains and the rarities of its flora and fauna attract thousands of visitors from year to year.

Our symbol is a peculiar flower of the area called

“Happy Woman’s Slipper”

Felsőtárkány preserves its unique folk traditions

We have got our own children's rhymes, songs, folkdance and costume.
