

1940's - 50's

"Wood Rail" Pinballs

Scores are from light bulbs

Sound via a "Bell"

$500 - $2,500

1960's & 70's

Electromechanical "EM"

Scores are mechanical reels

Lots of relays and solenoids

Sounds via a Chime Box

$1,500 - $4,000

1980's

Solid State "SS" Era

Scores are digital displays

Sounds are mostly beeps and boops

$3,500 - $7,500

1990's

Golden Age

Dot Matrix displays
Voice and music sound cards
$7,500 - $13,000

Pinball 2000

Only 3 games produced by Williams
PC-Based – Advanced technology
Voice and music sound cards
Drove Williams to exit the business
$8,500 - $12,000

2001 - 2015

Rebuilding Era

Dot Matrix displays
Voice and music sound cards
$8,500 - $20,000

2015 - Present

Resurgence Era

LCD Screen & LEDs
Some with WIFI connectivity
New available thru distributors
$9,500 - $25,000