SETTING UP YOUR COZYZONE LEG SUPPORT

CozyZone Leg supports should be used under the guidance of a Qualified Health Professional

Starting with the leg support positioned as shown above.

The square 'body' should be placed equidistant along the leg so that the knee sits in the middle of the support surface.

Bring the animal's head and neck up between the legs. Ensure it is in contact with the square body as shown.

The top leg guide should cover the animal's eyes and sit above the knee as shown

Bring the second leg guide over the top of the first as shown.

Repeat on the lower leg guard as shown. Secure using the clips

The straps can be secured to ensure the knees sit facing upwards. You should easily be able to place your hand between the leg and the leg guard.

If it feels too tight, it probably is. Seek guidance from a Qualified Health Professional.

COZYZONE LEG SUPPORT

Other Designs are available and we also offer plain designs for adults.

Can be used in Supine, Side-Lying or Semi Side-Lying.

PLEASE NOTE:

Our CozyZone Leg Supports are ideal to introduce night time positioning gently. However, we do recommend a full postural assessment and, if in bed positioning is seen as appropriate, this leg support is incorporated into a full CozyZone sleep system
