

NORTH CENTRAL • ORCHESTRAS •

To the 2022 - 2023 North Central Festival Orchestra,

Congratulations on being accepted into this advanced level ensemble! I am so very excited to embark on this amazing journey to create music together!! To help prepare you for the fall semester, we have available the following items...

1. Music for Piece 1 | Terra Nova by Richard Meyer
2. Music for Piece 2 | Danza Española by Bob Phillips
3. Seating Audition Information for NCFO Concert Cycles #1 & 2
4. Summer Private Lesson Log

You can find the reference recordings & music for pieces 1 & 2 on the NC Orchestra website using the QR Code below.

NCFO Seating Auditions | Concert Cycles #1 & 2

Seating auditions will be completed by video recording which you will submit in the fall...practice now, record later! Violin players can choose to read either Violin 1 OR Violin 2; specific part placement will be decided later. To help you prepare for this recording, please use the following information...

- Terra Nova | Richard Meyer
 - Measures 1 - 28
 - Metronome | Quarter Note = 108 bpm
- Danza Española | Bob Phillips
 - Measures 61 - End w/ repeats
 - Metronome | Quarter Note = 120 bpm

Summer Private Lessons

Students in the NCFO are STRONGLY ENCOURAGED to be enrolled in private lessons on their primary instrument to continue making music at a high level in the ensemble. Completed lesson logs will be turned in every 9 weeks for extra credit. Students not currently taking private lessons or looking for a new teacher should contact Mr. Lentz or check the NC Orchestra website for a list of Private Lesson Instructors. Students taking private lessons over the summer should complete the log below and turn it in on Friday, August 5th, 2022. The lesson log is attached to pg. 3 of this document.

Please let us know if you have any questions about this exciting ensemble & we look forward to many exceptional auditions in the fall!
