About Gotta Show Products

At Gotta Show Products, we recognize that plumbing a hot rod has typically resulted in “How the H E Double Hockey Sticks do I connect all of these components?”

Our goal has always been to offer products that simplify connecting the wide variety of cool components available to the hot rod and custom car market. We provide our customers with correct hose ends and eliminate the use of adapters. Whether it’s our unique power steering hose kits or the polished Stainless Steel A/C fittings, we allow you to cruise in comfort and style while your ride sparkles like a diamond.

Gotta Show Products is a true manufacturer – not a re-boxer. Our fittings are made in-house on state of the art CNC machines. When you install a product from Gotta Show, you know that it will work and look great (AND that it is made in the USA!). At every one of the sixteen to twenty shows we do across the country, you’ll be speaking with one of our staff (from the person who programs the CNC to the one on the other end of the phone). Both Fred and Dan have the in-depth knowledge of the product which will help you make the best choice for your building needs.

At Gotta Show we are working on new products everyday to help builders make their latest project better and easier to build. We take pride in knowing that Gotta Show products are renown to the street rod industry. We stop at nothing to bring you the most functional and best looking product possible. Our small but dedicated staff is known for putting in late nights and long weekends for coming up with new ideas, but we’re not complaining.

We have a huge inventory, ready to ship same day!
