Potluck

8/31/23

Announcements started @ 7:15 p.m.

Thank you to our hosts for the Ice Cream Social evening, Roz Kalb and Nick LaRocca.

Announcements:

Tonight's Potluck is the last of the season. A very special thank you goes to Angel Jamison for coordinating the varied weekly programs for this summer. Many joined in this weekly gathering at the Hall throughout the summer.

Thanks also to the many neighbors who have kept things running smoothly for the Hall this year. Elizabeth Nelson manages the Sabino Website, Lyn Brophy is the one who has been updating the road signs to keep us informed of each week's programs, Deb Fein-Brug has kept the Sabino Hall Mall running and Joanne Kelsey continues to circulate the books in the Little Lending Library.

The Sabino Board members work throughout the year to keep the Hall running smoothly. Brad Powers, Izabela Werner, Bob Apfel, Mike Jamison and Paul Werner are the ones to thank for this year's successful summer season and for overseeing the needs of the Hall..

Thank you to all who have hosted Potlucks, participated in weekly programs, kept up with Hall maintenance, and supported the Hall by paying membership dues. All your help is very much appreciated and makes Sabino Hall such a special part of the community.

The Sabino Hall Centennial Celebration & Fair was a big success both as a community event and also in raising over $3000.00 for the Hall. So many people worked together to coordinate all the pieces and the day ran smoothly as a result. Special recognition goes to Nancy and Mike McKay (cleaning area for Carl Adams' band to play), Kerry and Elizabeth Nelson (Social Media and Website), Katherine Larrabee (fliers), Paul Werner and Brad Powers (hanging banners and setting up street signs), Bob Apfel, Jill Van Note and Erin Powers (setting up stage for Tag Sale), Bob Apfel (hanging Fliers throughout town), Tina Sener (decorating tables), Mike Jamison and Bob Apfel (selling Hot Dogs, etc.), Elise Mangiulli, Angel Jamison, and Kelly Powers (manning the Bake Sale, with thanks to all bakers and their contributions), Cindy Fahay (Raffle tickets and Silent Auction sign-ups), Brad and Christine Smith (traffic control), Linda Powers (providing off-site vendor parking), Carl Adams and band members (live music throughout day), Mike Jamison (multiple help - Bodwell raffle donation, Bodwell shuttle van for vendors, digging hole for Time Capsule with Gerry Mitchell and burial, arranging sizable donation from Brackett's Market for Hot Dog station, contacting Times Record for news coverage and more!), Secretary of State Shenna Bellows (Presentation of 100 Years of Incorporation Letter), Frank Newton (history sharing of Sabino life), all who stayed to clean-up and re-setup the Hall, and Scott Andresen (taking down streamers after the Celebration). Very special thanks to Kelley and Brad Powers' entire family who covered many bases before, during, and after the event. Suzanne Andresen was a force who collected so many donations from area businesses for the raffle and silent auction items, distributed fliers, coordinated Tag Sale items, secured the vendors for the Fair, and provided the Taco Station while helping with all aspects of the Sabino Hall Centennial Celebration & Fair.

Announcements ended at 7:25, followed by the Ice Cream Social. Izabela Werner was the winner of the 50-50 Raffle for Ray Doughty's Commemorative Walking Stick along with half of the money collected.

Many thanks to the Nelson family who donated a framed collection of Sabino Hall photographs from 1888, 1922 and 2023 commemorating the history of the Bobtail Club. It will be displayed in the Hall so be sure to check it out, including the description of the Bobtail Club attached to the back.

The evening ended with a chance to take any leftover Tag Sale items for free. The leftover items will now be donated.

42 people attended the Potluck.
