

G F G Quarterly Newsletter – July 2019

Wow, we've been so busy the last few months I didn't even realize another quarter had past! The summer was full of concerts, out door festivals , dances, private parties & the usual gigs. I also took a trip to Ontario and played four different events including a set at Yuk Yuk's in Ottawa. Being a Comedy Club I was a little like a 'fish out of water' but only played two songs, told a couple jokes and got off the stage in a hurry. Being introduced by my friend Glen Foster 'That Canadian Guy' was a lot of fun and I played 'Party Out There Tonight' that we co-wrote! Another highlight was playing at Corktown Pub in Hamilton, Ontario doing a set with my good friend John Hollick, whom I hadn't played with in years. It was just like riding a bicycle, sort of. Currently the band is back in the studio finishing off new tracks for our next release due out sometime in the new year. It already promises to be one of my best albums ever, including songs from our recent EP as well as a Violin Quartet, a 13 piece choir and a Skiffle Group!
